FUNDRAISERS' JOY AT £10m MARKER

FUNDRAISERS are celebrating and have spoken of their pride after providing £10 million of specialist equipment for thousands of disabled children.

Report by Adam Burling

Eight years after its launch, the profits from Newlife's vast shop in Cannock has helped the charity reach the milestone.

The organisation has provided specialist equipment for thousands of disabled children across the UK since 2005.

Pround volunteers today hailed the £10m figure as a 'landmark' for the charity.

The charity's chief executive Sheila Brown said: "We're not talking about luxuries but essential items like wheelchairs and walkers for mobility, specialist beds to keep children safe at night and communication aids to give them a 'voice'.

Futures

"The investment of £10million into the lives and futures of these children is a landmark for Newlife Foundation, and something of which we are proud," she added.

"However, we shouldn't forget that many of these families turn to us in times of extreme crisis, when no-one else will help.

"That is why we also actively campaign, from local government to Parliamentary level, for a better deal for all families of disabled and terminally ill children."

The Newlife Foundation in Hemlock Way, now the leading national children's disability charity, has awarded more than 6,600 equipment grants to babies, children and young people up to the age of 19.

The value of grants distributed have quadrupled since 2005-6 when awards totalled £486,225 for 326 children.

This is compared to £980,071 for just the first six months of 2013, buying 669 pieces of equipment , which in itself is a 29 per cent increase on the same half-year period in 2012.

With continued budget cuts and a surge in demand for their service, the charity is calling for volunteers to either help fundraise or give a donation.

Money is mainly raised through sponsored sporting challenges, hosting coffee mornings or cake sales, making and selling handcrafted goods, organising pub quizes or community car washes, holding sponsored silences or staging an evening of entertainment.

Mrs Brown said: "Newlife guarantees that 100 per cent of any gift or donation will go directly to provide equipment for disabled and terminally ill children, and donors can ring-fence their money to a specific area."

If anyone wants to help, the charity can be contacted on freephone 0800 9884640.

Tesco will try to find staff new positions

TESCO bosses say they will try to make sure 19 staff at a store in Burntwood will get other jobs when it closes.

Tesco Express, Burntwood will be closing at the end of February. Bosses at the store broke the news to staff on Monday and a consultation with workers has been launched.

Chiefs at the supermarket giant said the Cannock Road store had 'not been performing to expectations for a number of years'.

The 2,994sq ft Burntwood convenience store first opened in November 2008 as a Tesco Metro measuring more than 10,000sq ft. But less than 12 months later, the store was downsized to the smaller Express store.

A new Aldi in Bridge Cross Road opened nearby 12 months ago and other competitors include Morrisons, which has a store on Burntwood High Street.

Tesco spokesman Simon Petar, said: "Our priority is to support our colleagues and we will do everything we can to find them alternative jobs within Tesco.

"Closing the store was a really difficult decision but we will continue to serve customers in Burntwood from our nearby stores in Brownhills, Cannock and Hednesford.

"The store has not been performing as we had hoped for a number of years."

Pub plan to get bigger

A PUB in Rugeley has submitted plans to extend its building and undergo a refurbishment.

The Red Lion Inn, Hay Lane, has submitted an application to Lichfield District Council to create a single storey side and rear extension to create a dining area, kitchen and courtyard.

An outbuilding will be demolished and the car park extended if the council approves the plans. The pub's website says it expects to ready by spring.

Thugs in three-week raids terror

IN A three-week reign of terror, masked thugs dragged a driver from his car in Cannock, raided a shop using a crowbar and pinned a terrified widow to her bed and stealing her late husband's watch.

Now two men have admitted their involvement in the robberies throughout the Black Country and Staffordshire, at Wolverhampton Crown Court.

Richard Howell, aged 37, and 28-year-old Ross Underwood confessed to joining forces to commit three raids.

Underwood further pleaded guilty to robbing a 52-year-old widow of jewellery that included the £15,000 watch.

The first raid was on August 13 when a driver was dragged from a blue Audi TT at the Orbital Retail Park in Cannock, the court was told.

The car was driven away by the two men who used scarves to hide their faces. The damaged Audi was recovered in Coseley on August 30, the day Howell and Underwood were arrested.

On August 14 the two robbers were in a masked gang armed with a crowbar who raided a Spar shop in Kingswinford at 11pm. Staff were threatened and cigarettes worth thousands of pounds were loaded into a blue Audi TT. Howell and Underwood were also among three men who stole £3,000 of cigarettes and threatened staff at a Co-op shop in Tividale on August 23.

Underwood was then one of three hooded raiders who forced their way into the Woodsetton home of a widow on August 29. Howell, of Carder Crescent, Bilston and Underwood of Damson Wharf, Tipton both admitted conspiring with others to rob, at Wolverhampton Crown Court.

Both admitted involvement in the incidents at Cannock, Kingswinford and Tividale while Underwood alone confessed to his part in the Woodsetton robbery. They will be sentenced in January.

Market day hopes to give town a lift

A STREET market is being trialled in Cannock in a bid to attract shoppers to a struggling town centre and boost business for traders.

It will be held weekly, starting tomorrow (Friday).

Similar markets have boost trade in town in the Black Country.

Around 30 stalls will be set up in Market Square initially. If the venture takes off, more units will be added. A mix of crafts, food and general items will be sold.

Regeneration leader Councillor Diane Todd said: "It is hoped the new market will bring vibrancy to the town centre."

Cannock Chase District Council approached Bescot Promotions, which runs markets in Halesowen and Wednesbury as well as the popular Sunday market at Walsall Football Club.

Operator Steve Evans said: "At Wednesbury, where we operate on Tuesdays and Fridays, shops have reported a 300 per cent increase in trade.

"People enjoy their visit and tend to come back to the town on non-market days.

The market will run for a trial period of six months.

Coucnil leader, Councillor George Adamson, said: "We hope by increasing the footfall into the town centre that it will improve trading conditions for existing retailers and, if successful, attract new retailers."

Man is held in drug bust

A MAN has been arrested in Cannock as police continue to crackdown on drug misuse.

The arrest of the 45-year-old man was made on Tuesday after officers from Cannock Chase local policing team executed a warrant at an address on Cannock Road, Chadsmoor. Officers discovered cannabis with an estimated value of £35,000.

Chief Inspector Carl Ratcliffe said: "Staffordshire Police is committed to continuing the fight against drug dealing."

Tributes to Sienna as salon expands

A CANNOCK beauty salon is set to expand by moving into a neighbouring unit. But there will be a touch of sadness to the celebrations as staff raise money in memory of tragic baby girl.

Soul Care Aesthetics was opened in September 2012 by Rachel Morgan and has since been highly commended as an aesthetic, beauty, hair and holistic centre.

Rachel hopes its move into a bigger unit in High Green Court will create more jobs and training opportunities.

"We aim to give everyone an opportunity," she said. "The work we offer varies from admin and reception to providing beauty, hair and aesthetic treatments, so there is something for everyone.

"Another aim of ours is to put Cannock back on the map and get it known for the lively and thriving town it is. By having clients from all areas of the country, we are providing Cannock and its businesses with more custom and diversity."

The new premises is being prepared for an open day on December 21, where staff and visitors will remember the life of Sienna May, a girl who died at just 15 weeks.

The opening will feature a Santa's grotto, a raffle and refreshments and a 15 percent discount on all treatments booked on the day. Carol singers will add to the atmosphere.

A spray tan will cost £12 and clairvoyant readings will be available for £25. Demonstrations will include botox, skincare and make-up, while throughout December, 15 per cent of all earnings will be going to the Sienna May charity.

Fleet of street cleaning vehicles given the nod

COUNCIL bosses have given the nod to a new fleet of street cleaners costing of more than £270,000. Some 17 new vehicles are expected to come into use in Cannock early next year.

Cannock Chase District Council says the £272,500 needs to be spent to avoid having to pay for repairs in the future when the existing street cleaners break down.

The authority's cabinet rubber-stamped the proposals last Thursday night having agreed in April that grounds maintenance and street cleansing services should be provided in-house for five years.

Grounds maintenance and street cleansing vehicles were procured quickly on short-term hire contracts in order for the council to continue providing services after contractor Fountains Plc went into administration in January last year.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, portfolio holder for culture and sport, said: "These vehicles are nearing the end of their life and becoming subject to increased maintenance."

Machinery

Councillor Carl Bennett, portfolio holder for environment, said: "That will be spending good money."

The expenditure will be added to this financial year's council budget.

A report to the meeting said: "It is necessary to procure replacement vehicles and machinery to deliver the council's grounds maintenance and street cleansing services.

"The existing vehicles identified are reaching the end of their life and are subject to breakdowns.

The meeting was also told that the authority will soon need to replace some of the fleet's 'more specialist' vehicles and horticultural grounds maintenance equipment, with officers currently looking at options.

Painting is auctioned in aid of relief fund

CHURCHGOERS in Burntwood plan to raise hundreds of pounds for communities ravaged by Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines.

They are responding to an urgent appeal by international charity Cafod, which is channelling support through local churches in the Catholic country.

A painting by local artist Anna Pearson has been donated by parishioner Bernard Mills to be auctioned off in aid of the appeal.

Father Paul Haines launched the silent auction in St Joseph's, Burntwood. The closing date for bids is Saturday (November 30). Many parishioners have donated cash to the appeal in lieu of placing a bid.

So far the Cafod appeal nationally has raised more than £1m, while in excess of £77,000 has come from Catholics within the Birmingham Diocese.

Abigail McMillan, manager for Birmingham, said: "We have been overwhelmed by the generosity and compassion of our supporters since we launched our appeal, and the efforts of the parishioners from Burntwood are another wonderful example of that."

Old hospital staff in reunion

Shirley Ingram, of Burntwood, who plans a reunion for old St Matthews hospital staff

FORMER hospital workers are looking forward to walking down memory lane at a reunion next month.

The gathering will mark 23 years since St Matthew's Hospital in Burntwood closed.

The reunion is being held in St Matthew's Sports and Social Club, the original hospital club, on Friday, December 6.

Organiser Shirley Ingram, a former staff nurse, said: "The hospital operated like a little village with partners and other family members also working there. There were staff homes on site and we had our own resident plumbers, carpenters and kitchen staff. We even had our own training school, it was a real community."

The hospital opened in 1864 as a county asylum. Mrs Ingram, of Woodford Crescent, Burntwood, said more than 100 people had already confirmed their attendance.

Tickets are available by calling the club on 01543 671067.

Christmas tree sales to begin on Chase

PICTURESQUE Cannock Chase has been transformed into a winter wonderland for its annual Christmas tree sales.

A range of trees from Scots pine to a selection of firs including Nordmann and Fraser go on sale from Saturday at Cannock Chase Visitor Centre, Marquis Drive, 9am to 4pm everyday.

Staffordshire County Council has been selling Christmas trees from Marquis Drive for 20 years-plus and more than 1,000 are snapped up each year.

Grotto

Countryside rangers have teamed up with volunteers to host the festive event at the beauty spot. Santa will greet children in his grotto and there will be festive craft stalls at weekends in the run up to Christmas.

County councillor Mike Lawrence said: "There is always a demand for real Christmas trees and this is a great way for the public to help protect the future of Cannock Chase as all of the money made will be put back into improving the visitor facilities."

To find out more call the Marquis Drive visitor centre on 01543 876741.

Chasewater festive fun

VISITORS can pick up some unusual gifts at a Christmas fair at Chasewater Country Park this weekend.

It takes place on Sunday, December 1, from 10am to 4pm and will include food, craft, gift and jewellery stalls as well as a baby clothes stand.

Children can also meet Santa and take a ride on the steam train.

The Forest of Mercia team will provide children's activities, as well as selling their own hand crafted wood pieces. Entry is free. Call 01543 370737 for more.

Fair fundraiser

LIGHT lunches and refreshments will be served at a Christmas fair this weekend. There will be stalls and a raffle at Bourne Methodist Church, Hednesford Road, Heath Hayes from 10am to 2pm on Saturday (November 30). Admission is free with all proceeds to the church.

Hospitals visiting warning

VISITORS are being warned to stay away from hospitals in Cannock Chase and Stafford if they have had 'flu-like' symptoms in the last few days.

Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust is asking anyone planning to visit either Stafford or Cannock Chase Hospitals to stay at home if they or their family members have had diarrhoea, vomiting or 'flu-like' symptoms in the last 48 hours.

The request is designed to help keep 'winter vomiting' or Norovirus away from vulnerable patients and staff who could pass it on.

Symptoms of Norovirus include diarrhoea and vomiting and, just like flu, the virus can seriously affect vulnerable patients.

People want to visit friends and relatives in hospital as often as they can.

However, by visiting while they're ill with a stomach bug, they can easily bring the virus into hospital. This can be particularly serious for those already ill or who have a long-term condition.

Dr Paul Woodmansey, Medical Director at the Trust said: "We usually see higher levels of Norovirus in the winter, and it's really important to make sure that we protect vulnerable patients and hospital staff.

"This is why we're asking everyone considering visiting a friend or relative in hospital to think carefully."

Amazon slave camp claim

AMAZON workers are forced to endure 'slave camp' conditions at the internet giant's warehouses, an investigation has been told.

An anonymous member of staff at the firm's warehouse in Rugeley made the claim on a BBC Panorama programme.

Amazon said the safety of its workers was its 'number one priority'.

Crib change

ST ANNE'S Church in Chasetown had postponed its Crib Service until 4pm on Christmas Eve. On Saturday December 14 the church is holding a coffee and mince pie morning which will include a sale of floral tributes and handmade. Come and join us for a coffee and a mince pie. The church will not be having a Christmas Tree Festival this year.

Great day for Orla as she switches on lights

Orla Fielder switches on the Christmas Lights

THOUSANDS of people watched inspirational 11-year-old Orla Fielder, from Penkridge, turn on the Christmas lights at Stafford.

She won a borough council-run competition to press the button. Festivities took place throughout the day, starting with a Santa Parade.

Stafford Mayor, Councillor Angela Loughran, who was at the switch on said: "It was lovely to see so many children enjoying themselves. The Santa Parade was a massive success. We had lots of floats taking part. Little Orla had a great day." She was diagnosed with leukaemia last year and has since helped raise £4,000 for charity.

● A busy main road will be closed while Hednesford's Christmas lights are switched on and other festivities take place.

An afternoon programme of events has been organised on December 6, culminating in the lights being switched on. There will be stalls selling gifts and food, and fairground rides running for youngsters.

There will also be live music from various choirs and a Santa's grotto.

A traffic order is in place to stop vehicles making their way along Market Street from its junction with Anglesey Street and the A460 from 11am to 8pm.

Hednesford North councillor Alan Pearson, who is also chairman of the town council, said: "A road closure will be made in Market Street for all traffic."

Town council clerk Peter Harrison added: "It should be a nice event again this year. And thankfully we don't clash with Rugeley or Cannock's lights switch-on."

The lights will be switched on in Hednesford at around 6pm.

Parents in protest outside school over religious trip

PARENTS turned out to protest on the day of a religious event for pupils after they were originally threatened with having a racial discrimination note against them if they did not attend.

Angry parents, who objected to the outing on religious grounds, hit out saying their children should not be 'called racist'. The trip on Wednesday was arranged by Littleton Green Community School in Huntington as part of the children's cultural education. Parents had threatened to keep their children away from school that day in protest.

But council chiefs have intervened and have insisted parents have a right to keep their children away from the event if they choose. And they have forced the school to withdraw the threat to put notes on pupils' records.

But parents turned out on to protest against the event and the school's behaviour in recent days.

Mother Stacy Waldron, whose eight-year-old daughter is a pupil, said she felt 'blackmailed' by the school. The 26-year-old, of Midland Road, Huntington, said: "I feel my child will be branded a racist if I don't allow her to go. This is my choice, not hers, and she shouldn't have to pay for it."

Another parent, mother-of-four Tracy Ward, of Island Road, said: "I was shocked by the letter. To be told my kids have got to attend this workshop is disgusting. Everyone should have a choice but that's my opinion and I don't want a stain on my kids' records as a result. They are not old enough to be called racist."

Informed

Her sister Donna Ward, 34, of Bracken Road, whose daughter attends the school, said: "It's not our religion. We should have a right to stop our children going."

Parents were informed of the outing and asked to contribute £5 towards travel costs.

After some voiced their opposition, they were sent a letter by headteacher Lynn Small stating: "Refusal to allow your child to attend this trip will result in a racial discrimination note being attached to your child's education record which will remain on this file throughout their school career.

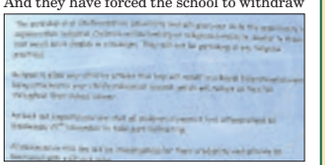
"All absences on this day will be investigated for their credibility and will only be sanctioned with a GP sick note."

A second letter from the headteacher to parents apologised for 'any inaccuracies' in her previous correspondence.

She asked parents to 'on reflection' disregard a section of the earlier letter.

And she confirmed pupils did not have to take part in the visit and that no racial tag would be attached to their school files.

Gavin Williamson, MP for South Staffordshire, said: "The idea of attaching a 'racial discrimination note' to children's education records saying it will remain on their file for the duration of their school career seems unfair, particularly when it is not the child's decision whether or not he or she attends.



An extract of the letter sent to parents

"It seems a very heavy-handed approach.

"Everyone wants to have a broad understanding of different faiths and religions but this seems a very odd approach to be taking.

"I'm hoping that this has just been an over-zealous approach by teachers at the school. I hope they wouldn't want to offend anyone and that this matter can be settled after some careful reflection."

South Staffordshire Councillor Leslie Ashley, who represents Huntington and is a former governor at the school, said: "I would not be at all happy with what appears to an underlying threat about some kind of record on a child's education.

"Quite honestly I don't like the tone of the letter and I'm not surprised some parents are against it."

Councillor David Clifft, chairman of nearby Essington Parish Council who has been a governor at St John's Primary School for 14 years, said the letter was 'very alarming and very concerning'.

He added: "The letter does concern me. As a school governor I would question the ethics behind this.

"It's giving carte blanche for the school to put a mark against a child's name if they are off school on that day for whatever reason, and it would seem it would be presumed that if you don't turn up you are causing trouble and you will get this note."

NEWS in brief

Police seize drug plants in raids

POLICE have seized cannabis plants in Great Wyrley – which would have had a street value of £26,000 once it had been harvested.

Officers from the South Staffordshire local policing team executed a warrant on November 20 at an address in Tower View Road where a number of cannabis plants were seized. A 30-year-old woman was arrested and has been bailed pending further inquiries.

On Sunday officers from the Neighbourhood Action Team seized cannabis plants from an address in Brooklands Avenue. A 22-year-old man was arrested and has been bailed pending further inquiries.

The arrests are part of Operation Nemesis – the force's ongoing drive to tackle drug dealers.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

IN THE space of a few hours this week I received two emails, apparently from BT, about changes to the email system. Both turned out to be bogus, part of a "phishing" scam to pick up personal details. The internet seems to get more dangerous every day, like a dark, growing forest with robbers behind every tree. I sometimes wonder how long the internet will last. Unless security is massively improved, the day may come when, like airships and Sinclair C5s, it will be seen as too dangerous for most folk to contemplate.

BIG row in Walsall over the council's decision to blow £50,000 on a new Jaguar as the mayoral limousine. A senior councillor says: "We feel it's important to retain the significance of the mayor's role. The mayor goes back to the 1200s. The mayor is the Queen's representative in the borough." Which sounds terribly impressive until you recall that the role of the Pope goes back 2,000 years and he is God's representative on earth. While the Mayor of Walsall rolls up in a £50,000 Jag, Pope Francis uses a Ford Focus.

IT IS reported that theft from shops in the UK now costs us £3,400 million a year, or about £124 per household. It is a colossal sum but what did the politicians expect when they effectively decriminalised shoplifting? Gone are the days when shoplifters were hauled before the courts to have their dishonesty dissected in public and their convictions printed in the local newspaper. Oh, the shame. These days a first-time shoplifter(and they always claim it's their first time) caught nicking items worth less than £100 is issued with a PND, a Penalty Notice of Disorder which is little more than a fixed-penalty fine. Pay £80 and you'll hear no more about it. This is probably the biggest bargain in the supermarket. If you go shoplifting a dozen times before you get caught and then get stung for £80, you're well into profit. Is it any wonder that thousands of people no longer regard shoplifting as a crime and look slightly puzzled if you suggest, heaven forbid, they should be ashamed of themselves?

FOR a snapshot of modern attitudes to theft from stores, have a look at that great national barometer, the Sky News website where one contributor thunders: "The only answer to this problem is to FIGHT for a DECENT WAGE." Actually, there is another answer. Try leading a decent, honest life and keeping your sticky fingers off other people's property.

MEANWHILE, it emerged this week that we are heading for the most debt-ridden Christmas of all time. Total UK personal debt stands at £1.43 trillion or if you prefer, £1,430,000,000,000. Average debt per British household is now £54,000, double the level of a decade ago. And just when you're thinking of doing something really desperate (like paying off some of your debts), along comes a couple of new credit cards, announced this week, which don't charge any interest for the first 15 months. Just think of the debt you can rack up before things turn nasty. Just what we need – the lead lifejacket.

IT is 50 years since President Kennedy was killed in Dallas. Over the following five decades, like so many of my generation, I have read endless conspiracy theories and watched a succession of reconstructions, documentaries and movies. Only one came close to persuading me there was more to this killing than a single assassin in the Dallas book depository. This was Bonar Menninger's book Mortal Error: The Shot That Killed JFK, which I reviewed when it was published 21 years ago. Menninger believes Lee Harvey Oswald fired only two of the three shots heard that day in Dallas. The third and fatal shot, he suggests, was fired accidentally by secret service agent George Hickey in the car behind Kennedy's who stood up in alarm when he heard Oswald's shots. It is an elegant theory. It explains not only why the three shots happened so quickly but why several witnesses said they smelt gunpowder in the air at street level. Above all, it is a theory which relies not on a conspiracy, which would surely have unravelled by now, but on a good, old-fashioned cock-up.

Company investing in development

AN academy set up by a Cannock company is putting its office staff through their paces in an online health and safety programme.

Material handling firm Briggs Equipment set up an academy in 2012, investing heavily in training and development to help its employees further their careers.

Employees at the Orbital Way headquarters take responsibility for their own development, since each programme of training is tailored to help them grow in their role and enhance career prospects. The 14-strong learning and development team incorporates technical trainers, an IT specialist and a development trainer plus a dedicated team with more than 90 staff offering courses to operate forklift trucks and plant equipment and health and safety courses

From 2014 the academy plans to introduce more approaches to learning such as forum theatre, which will involve professional actors working with staff.

"Our people are key to our future success," said Briggs Equipment CEO Richard Close.

Lodger stole £3k from his friend and landlord

A FATHER-OF-THREE who stole almost £3,000 from his Rugeley landlord's bank accounts has been spared jail.

Martin Flint defrauded his landlord and friend of the money when staying as a lodger in his house in Attlee Crescent. Flint, who pleaded guilty to seven counts of fraud, told Cannock Magistrates Court he took the money out of desperation to repay loan sharks, a claim which is currently under police investigation.

by Kirsten Rawlins

Mr Giles Rowden, prosecuting, described how Flint took his landlord's bank details when a new card and letter from the bank was posted to their home.

The 32-year-old then used the details to make payments to taxi firms, draw hundreds of pounds from cash machines and pay for mobile phone bills. He also took out a £500 cash loan using the stolen details.

Mr Rowden said: "In August the complainant received a new card and letter from the bank which had been tampered with.

Full

"Between August 15 and September 10, 2013, the victim's card and details were used to withdraw cash to make payments. Later in September the complainant then discovered he had problems with bank statements missing and other payments on his account."

Mr Rowden said when arrested, Flint made full admissions. He described the act as 'a significant breach of trust'.

According to Flint's defence solicitor, his client was acting out of desperation to repay loan sharks.

"These offences were committed as a result of the pressure he was under to repay his debts to a loan shark - this is not somebody who was living a lavish lifestyle," Mr Mark Holder, defending, said.

"This was an opportunist theft and the complainant has been reimbursed by his banks."

Flint asked for a further 20 matters to be taken into consideration, including five withdrawals from cash machines totalling of £890.

In all, Flint took more than £2,900.

The former chef, who now lives in a hostel in Sparkbrook, Birmingham, was given a jail sentence of five weeks, suspended for two years. He was also made subject to community order of 24 months, with 12 months supervision.

Flint was fined £100 for having committed the offence while being subject to a suspended sentence.

He was also ordered to pay court costs and a victim surcharge, totalling £185.

Sentencing Flint, magistrates chairman Jane Evans, said: "This was so serious because it was a breach of trust – he was a friend – and you have a history of this type of offending."

Festive family fun at museum

Visitor services assistant Ruth Taylor promotes the Christmas family fun day

A TOP Chase attraction is gearing up for a day of festive fun this weekend.

The family fun day takes place at the Museum of Cannock Chase, in Valley Road, Hednesford, on Sunday, December 1.

It will feature a whole host of activities, including a crafty Christmas drop-in and an arts and crafts workshop with a festive theme. Children will be able to enjoy a festive face painting stall, as well as a Christmas-themed puppet show.

Educators will dress in 1940s attire and giving talks on how Christmas would have been spent during the Second World War. There will also be a variety of stalls, displays and food on offer. Although is free but some activities may be charged.

For more information call 01543 877666.

Christmas messy church

A FAMILY-friendly afternoon of crafts, stories, games and food is on offer at a Hednesford church next month. The Messy Church session with a Christmas theme takes place at Trinity Church, Station Road, from 3pm on Sunday, December 15. Call Carol on 01543 877787 or Wendy on 01543 425434 for more details.

Window appeal to mark pit closure

CHURCHGOERS collected £220 towards a stained glass window appeal from a bucket appeal at a Cannock store.

The collection was made at Morrisons in Cannock in aid of the appeal by St Thomas's Church, Huntington. The appeal was launched to mark the 20th anniversary of the closure of Littleton Colliery. Some £15,000 is needed for the window to commemorate the life of the church and the area's mining history.

Remember

Church warden Debbie Brown said: "We have every faith that this will be achieved and the window will be in place within the church next year."

St Thomas's held a mining weekend in September to remember the old pit and to launch the appeal. Some fundraisers have already been held, while others are in the pipeline.

Debbie added: "We wish to thank everyone who has kindly donated so far."

The proposed design will be on show at St Luke's Christmas Tree Festival this weekend, November 28-30. A special service is being held on December 10, the pit closure's anniversary.

Santa drops in at market

A VICTORIAN Market will kick off the festive season in Penkridge tomorrow night (Friday).

The annual event, on the site of Penkridge Market, takes place 5-9pm and will feature more than 100 stalls of crafts and food, including local produce, together with entertainment, including a funfair and a stilt walker.

Father Christmas will be making a guest appearance helped by his good friends of the Round Table.

Dress to impress call from Stephen

A TEENAGER with incurable cancer is asking office workers, clubs and other would-be partygoers to buy tickets for a special festive fund-raiser.

Stephen Sutton, from Burntwood, is on a mission to raise £150,000 for the Teenage Cancer Trust after smashing previous fund-raising targets.

The 18-year-old is holding a charity ball on December 14 at Burntwood Rugby Club and needs local groups to buy tickets.

Guests are invited to 'dress to impress'.

The former A-star student, who was on course to become a doctor, was diagnosed with cancer at 15.

Despite surgery, chemotherapy and radiotherapy doctors say his condition is incurable.

He gave up his studies at Chase Terrace Technology College to focus on raising money for the Teenage Cancer Trust, which has helped him through his illness.

"To say thank you I want to raise as much as I can so others can benefit as I have," he said

To book tickets, contact him on stephen@stephensstory.com or at facebook.com/stephensstory

Man faces gun charge

A MAN accused of possessing a stun gun disguised as a mobile phone has appeared in court. Wesley Stockley also faces a charge of producing cannabis.

The 34-year-old appeared before Cannock Magistrates Court where he gave no indication of plea. Stockley, of Market Street, Hednesford, was remanded in custody to appear at Stafford Crown Court on December 13.

A second man, a 36-year-old from Merseyside, was arrested on suspicion of possession of cannabis and conspiracy to commit burglary. He has been bailed pending further inquiries.

Coffee morning

A BRIDGTOWN garage raised £240 for Macmillan with a coffee morning. Nearby businesses donated prizes for a raffle at Den's Autos, in New Street. The company also sold cakes to customers, villagers, friends and family members to boost the coffers.

Pitmen presented with life-saving machine

Physio Gavin Blackwell receives the defibrillator from PPD administrator and HTFCSA committee member Keith Harley

A LIFE-SAVING defibrillator has been presented to Hednesford Town Football Club thanks the Football Association (FA), British Heart Foundation (BHF) and the the club's supporters association (HTFCSA) and its Pitmen Prize Draw (PPD).

In a unique partnership between the BHF and The FA, more than 900 defibrillators have been made available to clubs at Steps One to Six of the National League System and clubs in the Women's Super League to help save the lives of cardiac arrest casualties. Hednesford is the latest club to install a defibrillator, giving players, staff and fans access to the equipment needed to save lives in their community.

The club was also given information about Hand-only CPR, which was made famous for the BHF by football legend Vinnie Jones. Two-thirds of the cost of the defibrillator was provided to the club by The FA and BHF, with the rest coming from the club fund of the PPD.

Pitmen's physio Gavin Blackwell said: "This vital piece of equipment could prove to be the difference between life and death and it's a welcome addition to this club and its community. The FA, BHF and HTFCSA have made it possible for Hednesford to be part of the drive to improve the UK's poor cardiac arrest survival rates. Along with CPR, a defibrillator is a vital link in the chain of survival and we're lucky that we now have the skills and equipment at the club to save a life."

Awareness around sudden cardiac arrests was heightened when former England Under-21 star, Fabrice Muamba, suffered one last year. A defibrillator gives the heart a controlled electrical shock during cardiac arrest.

Tenants are urged to love where you live in message

A CAMPAIGN is being launched urging people to love where they live. The Cannock Chase Council scheme follows investment and improvements made to two estates in Cannock and Chadsmoor over the last 12 months.

Communal and outside areas near flats on the Carfax and Moss Road estates have undergone improvements carried out by the district and Staffordshire county councils in a bid to improve the appearance of the neighbourhoods.

The council is now asking the people who live there to make sure they stay in good shape, by launching a campaign called Love Your Block.

The campaign aims to maintain the improvements by encouraging tenants to get involved and become what is known as a resident champion.

Hope

Staffordshire Police and Staffordshire Fire and Rescue have backed the project, which they say could help reduce anti-social behaviour and deliberate fire-setting in the areas.

Carmel Warren, fire prevention manager for the fire and rescue service, said: "We hope residents and visitors to the area build on the invigorated community spirit generated as part of Love your Block.

"It is hoped that this new sense of pride in the environment will lead to a reduction in anti-social behaviour including deliberate fire-setting."

A recruitment drive is under way to engage with tenants and encourage them to come forward and become the champion for their housing block. For more details, call 01543 462621.

Cheers for art down at the local

THEY are pulling pints and putting up paintings at a Burntwood pub after artist David Brown used his local to stage his latest exhibition.

And drinkers at the White Swan have the chance to buy any piece that takes their fancy.

He is offering all of his unsold work at prices ranging from £35 to £90.

His paintings normally sell at up to £400 in local galleries.

Mr Brown is known as a painter of portraits but also has a great love of landscape.

Among the paintings are pictures of Lichfield and Walsall; a painting of families gathering at Hednesford pit at the time of the 1912 disaster; one of wild horses racing through the snow; landscapes with towering skies as well as more tranquil scenes.

The exhibition, his fifth one-man show in two years, runs until December 15.

Charity nibbles

A HAIR saloon in Cannock is holding a raffle and nibbles afternoon to raise money for Cancer Research and the Alzeimer Society. The event will take place on December 7 at Emma Louise Unisex Hair Salo, Cemetery Road, from 3pm to 5.30pm

Please sir, I think you'll find I'm in charge

I'm in charge . . . pupil Ethan Taylor, aged 10, got to walk in the shoes of teacher Will Stevens for a day

YOUNGSTERS at a Hednesford school stepped into the shoes of teachers and other staff as part of a national initiative.

Sixty Year 6 students at St Peter's CE Primary School, shadowed teachers, caretakers and administrative staff.

They spent the day planning lessons, marking work, hosting an assembly and assessing their fellow pupils and teaching assistants.

Some children worked with support staff in the school office while others carried out maintenance work with the site supervisor. Other students interviewed governors and ask them about their line of work.

Year 6 teacher Will Stevens, who helped organise the event, said: "This event gives children an exciting opportunity to explore what it is like to work in the real world.

"I'm really interested to find out how the children find the teaching experience and all the preparation that is required to teach a class."

National Takeover Day was launched by the Children's Commissioner for England in 2007.

NEWS in brief

Santa drops in to visit children

IN MY VIEW WITH MARK ANDREWS

SOME years ago, my car was vandalised. It had been keyed from front to back, with several deep scratches across four different panels. Pretty conclusive evidence of a crime, wouldn't you say? Not according to the police officer who attended.

"So what makes you think it was deliberate?" he asked.

Of course. Somebody walking past, maybe on their way to a charity auction or something, just happens to have a sharp implement in their hand, and accidentally gouges a 16ft stretch of paintwork. Happens all the time.

Last week former West Midlands Police chief inspector Rodger Patrick told a committee of MPs about how police officers used such quaintly-named techniques as 'cuffing', 'nodding', 'skewing' and 'stitching' to make crime figures look better.

'Cuffing' could potentially involve recording thefts as 'lost property', burglaries as 'theft from property', and attempted burglaries as 'criminal damage', he explained. As opposed to the good old days, when it was a way of dealing with young miscreants. And that made the crime figures look better too.

CONGRATULATIONS on Kingston-upon-Hull being voted UK City of Culture in 2017.

Now I must confess ignorance, in the sense that it is a place I have never visited. But I'm in no doubt that it is a very pleasant place, and I know enough people who originate from that neck of the woods to know it would be very unwise to ever suggest anything else. But it does beg the question of how our ruling classes define culture, and what sort of attributes they seek.

The UK City of Culture panel was headed by television producer Phil Redmond, best known for making Grange Hill and Brookside, and the other main contenders for the title included Leicester, Dundee and Swansea.

Again, very nice cities, no doubt, but it doesn't take a mastermind to imagine the type of culture they were looking for. I can imagine buzz words like 'cutting edge', 'vibrancy' and 'diversity' being used pretty liberally during the judging process.

So Worcester, which gave the world Edward Elgar, Stratford-upon Avon, the home of William Shakespeare, and Portsmouth, the birthplace of Charles Dickens, are all overlooked, and instead the accolade goes to the city which brought us John Prescott. Brilliant.

Janne admires the Molineux trophy cabinet

Janne Blomquist shows his support for Wolves

Janne in Kenny Jackett's seat in the dugout

Swede's love affair with gold and black

Janne Blomquist tells PETER MADELEY how he was hocked after watching Wolves on the television

HIS love affair started almost 45 years ago. A scrappy 1-0 win over Sunderland at a snow covered Molineux was all it took to make one man a Wolves fan for life.

But Janne Blomquist was not born in Bushbury or Whitmore Reans and he wasn't watching his heroes from the South Bank.

The 59-year-old saw his first Wolves game on a small black and white TV in the living room of his parents' house in Stockholm in November 1969.

"There used to be a programme on Swedish TV called Tipsextra. It was like the football pools really, but they used to show some matches," says Janne.

"Wolves against Sunderland was the first ever game they put on.

Happier

"I remember the pitch was covered in snow and the teams played with an orange ball, but Wolves won and I have been hooked ever since.

"I always remember the goalscorer – a Scotsman called Hugh Curran."

In November Janne came to Wolverhampton for the first time as part of a delegation of Swedish teachers visiting nursery schools in the West Midlands.

During a visit to Ashmore Park Nursery School, the father-of-two insisted on wearing the Wolves shirt his daughter Kristin had bought him when she visited a friend in the city two years ago.

"Those were happier times for the club," he says. "We were in the Premier League! My daughter went to see her friend in Wolverhampton and brought me back a Wolves shirt, so I decided to wear it on my visit to Ashmore Park.

Long time Swedish Wolves fan Janne Blomquist at the Billy Wright statue

"Some of the staff at the school were a bit confused to see a Swedish man in a Wolves shirt, but I told them my story and they seemed to understand."

After the club heard about his devotion to the team officials arranged for him to have a tour of the ground where they handed over a club scarf.

He said the ground was 'in a different world' to the stadium of his favourite Swedish team Degerfors, who play in the country's second division.

"The stadium is absolutely incredible. When I watch my team in Sweden the stadium only holds a couple of thousand, so this is so much better. Degerfors are not a bad team, but they concede too many goals – a bit like Wolves in the last few years.

"It is a shame I could not see them live during my stay as they were away at Carlisle, but this is the next best thing. It is amazing to be able to walk out of the tunnel and sit in the same seat in the dugout as Kenny Jackett."

Janne revealed he almost never made it to Wolverhampton after his boss put him down to visit a Shropshire school.

"There were two possible destinations – Wolverhampton and Telford," he says. "My boss originally had me on the list go to Telford, but I explained the situation and thankfully I have an understanding boss!"

Janne, who lives and works in Skarpnäck, a suburb of the Swedish capital, says: "Obviously the likes of Manchester United, Liverpool and Aston Villa are very popular, but there are plenty of Wolves fans in Sweden."

The large following the club enjoys in Scandinavia can partially be explained by the fact that Wolves v Sunderland was the first English football match to be televised live in Sweden.

The game has gone down in Swedish football folklore to the extent that in the mid-1990s Hugh Curran and Dave Wagstaffe re-enacted the goal on the pitch at Molineux for a feature that was broadcast on Swedish TV.

Janne says he most admires the club's older players, citing club great Kenny Hibbitt as his favourite player of all time.

Hope

He says he has found it hard to keep up with Wolves fortunes in recent years as the descent down the divisions has meant they are no longer on Swedish TV.

"When they were in the Premier League I used to see about 10 games per season, but League One is not covered by Swedish satellite. I know the team are doing well and the manager has changed a lot of players."

He adds: "I just hope they can get promoted so I can see their matches again."

So how does a Swedish Wolves fan cheer on Wolves in his native tongue? "I shout in English, 'Come on you Wolves!' he said, but if you want some Swedish it's 'Jobba Jobba Wolves!', which means 'Work, Work'.

Wolves bosses said they were delighted to welcome their Swedish fan to the club.

Spokesman Paul Richards says "We have got a huge following in places like Norway, Sweden and the rest of Europe. Janne is a great example of one of these people who are so dedicated to Wolves. We were delighted to show him around the ground and take him pitchside."

THROUGH THE YEARS

1983...

A COUNCIL announced it would be taking a softer stance on prosecutions for breaches of Sunday trading laws. Wolverhampton Council had previously had a policy of rigidly enforcing laws banning businesses from opening on the Sabbath.

THE Express & Star carried an aerial shot of the new M54 motorway link to Telford, which was due to be opened by Transport Secretary Nicholas Ridley. In an article Mr Ridley wrote: "Although the M54 has in the past understandably attracted some controversy and objections from environmentalists, I believe the advantages and far outweigh the disadvantages."

WOOLWORTH'S chairman John Beckett defended his company's decision to prosecute a 77-year-old shoplifter, despite being castigated by a judge. Walsall-born Mr Beckett, a former pupil of Wolverhampton Grammar School, said a shoplifter's age should not be taken into account unless they were ill or confused.

1993...

IT WAS announced that the last remaining coal pit in Staffordshire was to close before Christmas, throwing 600 miners out of work. Workers at Littleton Colliery, near Cannock, were told by bosses at British Coal that the pit would close on December 10.

CHANCELLOR of the Exchequer Ken Clarke cut the rate of borrowing by 0.5 per cent to 5.5 per cent, sparking measures that he was trying to stimulate consumer spending ahead of a tax rise.

WOLVES fans were furious when they arrived at Luton to discover that the match had been called off. The First Division tie at Kenilworth Road had been cancelled just three hours before kick-off.

2003...

ENGLAND were celebrating their most famous sporting victory since 1966 after lifting the Rugby World Cup.Prolific scorer Jonny Wilkinson grabbed the glory with a dramatic last-minute extra time winner.

A CHURCH sparked a fury by removing all silk flower arrangements from graves in its yard. Furious relatives blasted Rev David Vastergaard's decision to enforce the strict rules at Holy Trinity Church in Heath Town, Wolverhampton, without warning. Around100 people signed a petition opposing the controversial move. Mr Vastergaard apologised for any anguish caused by the ban, but said artificial flowers quickly looked shabby and dirty, and could also damage mowing and strimming equipment.

New cemetery flooded after heavy downpours

Heavy rain has left pools of water on the ground at Strawberry Lane Cemetery making it resemble a paddy field

VISITORS to a newly-opened cemetery were shocked to find it partially submerged in water.

The graveyard site in Great Wyrley, which opened just four months ago, was flooded over the weekend – although no graves have been affected, according to council chiefs.

It is understood that the problem at Strawberry Lane Cemetery was caused by heavy rain over the past few weeks.

The site in Upper Landywood Lane, the size of five rugby pitches, is due to provide enough burial plots for the next 50 years. It was opened in July.

A visitor to the site, who did not want to be named, said: "I couldn't believe how much water there was. Thankfully that part of the site is empty at the moment."

The cemetery was built after 12 acres of land was gifted to South Staffordshire District Council by local landowner Ken Lees. The site, when filled, will hold 8,000 plots.

Contractors moved in last December. Landscaping and planting around the edge of the plot formed the first phase of the project.

Planted

The main civil engineering works on access to the cemetery and provision of car parking spaces around the site were completed in the spring.

The cemetery was opened on July 4, by Rita Heseltine, chairwoman of South Staffordshire Council. Mrs Heseltine, along with Councillor Mary Bond, cabinet member for environmental services, planted a tree to mark the opening.

The site will serve both Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley.

Councillor Bond said: "We are aware of a surface flooding issue at Strawberry Lane, and have already taken immediate steps to drain off the majority of the water from the site.

"We will also be taking further action to bolster the draining works already put in place on the site and ensure they will be able to cope with excess water.

"The water is only surface water due to the amount of rain we have had recently, and not indicative of a wider problem."

Holes in NHS and pension budgets

RE: George Adamson's letter on the cost of living crisis (Chronicle, November 8).

I think he has a cheek to go on about this Government when his party, over 13 years, spent all the money and created massive black holes in the pensions, NHS and defence budgets.

He and his party locally have increased their own wages while laying off public sector workers and increasing the council tax year on year to pay for it.

It also scares me to read that he thinks wages could go up when companies were not selling their goods. Should people like this be running our council?

The other week he wanted to waste our money building a shopping mall. I could not understand the reasoning behind this. Why build more shops when people have not got the money to spend in the ones that we have now?

Items to rebuild lives in Philippines

FOR several years we have shipped crates of recycled items to the Philippines. We're happy to share our contacts and experience with anyone interested in doing the same.

Immediately to help homebuilding after the typhoon, Forex Cargo UK Ltd are the shipping agency for the Philippines. They are sending a container in two weeks' time with no charge, with hopefully another to follow. Shipping time is 35 days. Because for the moment addresses in the worst-hit areas are simply wiped out, everything is being shipped to the Red Cross/Department of Social Welfare and Development in Manila. The company ask that sturdy boxes of any size of items tightly packed, go to their depot at Unit 7, Alpha estate, Clayton Road, Hayes, Middlesex UB3 1BB.

Once the worst is over they will then ship crates to any address in the Visayan islands, the central cluster of islands that has been hit by both the typhoon and the earthquake with a 50 per cent reduction on normal rates, with local pick up resumed. Contact 0208-797-5923. We are building a list of individual addresses in affected areas who will receive and distribute boxes.

Because costs are based on volume not weight, we avoid bulky stuff. They don't need winter clothes or large sizes of clothes. We regularly send bed linen, crockery (well wrapped), cutlery, tools, light small /medium sized clothing.

Business lost due to parking rule change

LIKE your complainant Tony Jones from Burntwood, I too parked in Victoria street in Cannock in the same spot I had done so on my weekly visits to the town since 1989.

On returning to my car I had a ticket stating not displaying a valid permit. The traffic warden was still in the street so I asked why. He said parking rules had recently changed as per the sign on the lamppost. I said that after parking there weekly for more than 20 years why would I need to look at a small insignificant sign? He was very helpful and friendly and suggested I challenge the ticket.

I did, but what a waste of time that was. I received a curt standard reply saying my challenge was rejected as the sign clearly showed the changed parking rules – a sign about six inches square. I have paid the fine, but no longer shop in Cannock, so the town retailers have lost my business due to the council's couldn't-care-less attitude. It's little wonder the town centre is dying on it's feet if that's how visitors are treated.

Someone's untruthful

HOW come all the energy companies have put 10 per cent on our bills when inflation is only up two per cent? Where can we get 10 per cent from to pay our bills? And why is Mr Cameron not telling the companies they cannot put a 10 per cent rise over two per cent inflation? The companies are telling us that everything has gone up in price so if everything has gone up in the country why is inflation not above two per cent? Someone is not telling the truth. Please let's go back to MEB, one company.

Message to couch potatoes

IN April, my wife suffered a stroke. She received excellent care at both the New Cross Stroke Unit and follow up therapy at Cannock.

Upon discharge the 'Health Net' support team contacted us to identify the various issues and the many support services that are available, and, to help with the maze of claim forms.

A visit from the DWP Disability and Carers Service was arranged and together we spent over three hours completing the forms.

Those of you who had regular employment and paid your dues have probably guessed what comes next. Thank you for your claim, etc. However, because of your disposable income you are not entitled, etc.

So, from me, a message to the couch potatoes and all those waiting to flood our country, courtesy of that unelected bureaucratic shambles in Brussels. Take this party for all you can, it's what they deserve.

Bottled gas an answer?

FURTHER to recent letters about price rises, some bills may well rise by just about nine per cent, but low users' bills could more than double. Why? Because the Government has forced energy companies to impose a quarterly standing charge, previously included per unit cost. So those using a lot for say a boiler, will have a bill about nine per cent higher while some using only a little will find their yearly bills from British Gas rising to £153 instead of £63 at present for the same quantity of fuel used, £23.25 per quarter standing charge. Switching would not help as others are listing much higher charges. Perhaps bottled gas is one solution?

Help thanked after fall

I'D like to thank the four people who came to my aid when I fell flat on my face at the corner of Anson Street and Wolseley Road in Rugeley. The nurse checked me over to make sure I had no very serious injuries and a second woman who appeared tried to call my friend. They were joined by a man and a policeman and between then they started to calm me down before the ambulance came. Thank you most sincerely for your help through what was a most traumatic time.

Memorial garden praise

ON Thursday, November 7, we went to St John's Church at Heath Hayes to attend our son's resting place in the memorial garden. We were pleasantly surprised. The grass had been cut, the fencing replaced and a good general tidy-up had taken place. May we thank the people responsible, much appreciated.

Lizz hits the target in young sports star hunt

Lizz Bradbury, centre, receives her Sports Star Award from Natal Chapman and her rifle shooting coach Vic Tyne

A TALENTED teenager has shot to a sporting honour.

Lizz Bradbury, aged 15, was named as Cannock Shopping Centre's Young Sports Star. The Chase Terrace Technical College student, a keen rifle shooter, was presented with an engraved Star Award and a JD Sports voucher.

Lizz was put forward because of her extraordinary expertise in air rifle shooting by her development officer at the Pentathlon GB and Vic Tyne from Rugeley Rifle Club. Lizz started just over a year ago and has been chosen to represent her country in future national and international competitions with the GB Junior Rifle Squad.

Lizz said: "It's such an honour to be recognised for my achievements and I think it's great to raise awareness of young sportspeople.

Votes

"I know competition was tough so it really means a lot to be chosen as The Cannock Young Sports Star."

Shopping Centre manager Natal Chapman said: "In total we received over 800 votes for the top three nominations and I'd like to thank everyone that took part."

On Saturday December 14 there will be an opportunity to try out pistol shooting and fencing at an open day at Lizz's school in Bridge Cross Road. Call 07783 400 253 for details.

Cannock Shopping Centre is now on the lookout for a Christmas Star. Email cannockstars@pmwcom.co.uk or write to Cannock Stars, c/o PMW Communications Ltd, Stane Court, Stane Street, Billingshurst, West Sussex, RH14 9HP.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done.

We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Wolverhampton and the surrounding area and Brian is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Builder to take on council in legal fight over homes

A CANNOCK developer claims council bosses have seriously underestimated the number of new homes that will be needed in a village near the town over the next 15 years.

by Marion Brennan

Builder Ken Lees has legally challenged South Staffordshire District Council in the High Court over its assessment that 56 new homes will be required in Great Wyrley between now and 2028.

The figure is contained in the council's local plan which all planning authorities are required to submit to the government.

It outlines how the council intends to develop its land over a certain period.

Mr Lees said Great Wyrley has sufficient infrastructure – such as rail and road links, shops, schools and other facilities – for substantially more housing.

Equates

He described the estimate of 56 as 'ridiculous', saying the figure did not compare fairly with other villages in the district.

The 77-year-old businessman said: "The natural expansion of the town requires a quota higher than that. This equates to just three units of housing a year.

"What about all the youngsters? Where are they going to live? "A figure as low as 56 will force them to move out of the village."

Under the plan, Codsall has been allocated 222 homes, Perton 166, Pattingham 22, Kinver 91, Wombourne 256, Swindon 23, Coven 32, Wheaton Aston 32, Cheslyn Hay 107, Essington 23 and Featherstone 40.

This earmarked development would take out more than 100 acres of green belt land, he said.

Mr Lees, who was brought up in Great Wyrley, and his company, KGL Estates Ltd, Swaffield Park, has taken South Staffordshire Council to the High Court.

David Pattison, the council's director of legal and public health protection, said: "KGL Estates, as a large landowner in Great Wyrley, wanted a much larger number of houses to be built in Great Wyrley.

"The council has defended this challenge strongly. We strongly disagree with KGL's view.

"The council's case is that the allocation of 56 houses to Great Wyrley was a very carefully considered decision, based on a large number of factors including previous levels of development in Great Wyrley.

"This was examined by a government-appointed inspector and he found the council's plan sound, including the policy on housing numbers."

The court judgment is expected before Christmas.

A new chapter in history of village

David Williams with the new history book on Bridgtown

PHOTOGRAPHS and stories of the people and places that have made up Bridgtown over the years have been chronicled in a new book.

Bridgtown and Beyond has been compiled by David Williams, a former head of the village primary school and a member of Bridgtown & District Local History Society.

The book, available in newsagents and garden centres, took nine months to put together. It features a collection of photos and stories from the area between 1861 and 1950.

Mr Williams said: "The society has only been going for four years but already we have written four books.

"We are now appealing for people to come forward with pictures and stories from the town during the 60s, 70s and 80s. Once we have information from those three decades, we can begin to compile another book."

Ex started blaze and sent photo to a friend

A SLEEPING man was awoken by a phone call warning that there was a fire outside his house – started by his ex-girlfriend.

Chris Rickuss managed to put out the fire in the gazebo by hurling buckets of water out of his bedroom window in Cannock, Stafford crown court heard.

He had been alerted to the blaze in a call from a friend who had been sent a pictre of it by Shelby Hodgkiss.

Hodgkiss, 18, was given two years in youth custody after admitting arson being reckless as to whether life was endangered, criminal damage, possessing an offensive weapon and putting a person in fear of violence.

The court heard Hodgkiss set fire to the gazebo in Linwood Drive with a petrol-soaked rag on August 23.

She sent a picture of the blaze to Darren White. He recognised the location and called Mr Rickuss, who was asleep in bed.

Mr Robert Edwards, prosecuting, said when Mr Rickuss went outside, he found his Peugeot car had been scratched on one side.

Recorder Mr Collingwood Thompson told Hodgkiss, of Elm Grove, Huntington: "The only reason things didn't become more serious is someone phoned him to say his gazebo was on fire."

Shelby Hodgkiss

Mr Edwards said since Hodkiss's eight-month relationship with Mr Rickuss had ended in August, he had received threatening text messages and phone calls.

Mr Tim Pole, defending, said Hodgkiss suffered with a number of personality difficulties.

GERMANY HAS THE ANSWER TO YOUR HEATING PROBLEMS

In Germany, Austria, Poland, Russia, Eastern Europe and even America more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with a very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or Economy 7.

Here in the UK, more and more of our customers are making the same decision!

When you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next!

All you need is standard electricity supply and NO special tariff like Economy 7. The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different! Why?

Put simply, central heating isn't the only choice anymore! Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions, conservatories with this incredible German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can become a valuable storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, spanners, hammers, wrenches and work boots. This incredible German heating simply plugs in and that's it. Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house! Get your free info pack right away by calling 01889 576732.

This heating is NEW in the UK, yet in Germany, Austria, Poland, Russia and even America it has been a mainstream form of heating for a very long time.

Discover for yourself this incredible German heating, get your FREE info pack right away by calling Simple Heating Solutions on Rugeley 01889 576732, ask for Martin.

Four-hour limit imposed on popular town car park

DRIVERS will be restricted to four hours use at a popular town car park to stop workers from abusing it. Cannock Chase Council's cabinet rubber-stamped the plans for the Rugeley Road car park in Hednesford last week.

The car park remains free to use for up to four hours – but the restriction is aimed at stopping people from leaving their vehicles there all day. A parking order will be introduced on the council's section of the car park, imposing a four-hour maximum vehicle stay beginning on December 9.

The restriction will operate between 8am and 3pm Monday to Saturday, excluding Bank Holidays.

Anybody parking for more than four hours from this date may be subject to a penalty notice.

Driver faces court charge on death of motorcyclist

A MOTORIST has appeared in court charged with causing death by careless or inconsiderate driving.

John Foster, aged 67, is alleged to have pulled out of the junction at Victoria Road and Cemetery Road, Hednesford, on July 6 last year into the path of motorcyclist David Hall who later died.

John Foster outside Cannock Magistrates Court

An inquest concluded his death was an accident but police later started prosecution proceedings.

Foster, of Littleworth Road, Hednesford, gave no indication of plea to Cannock magistrates last Wednesday (November 20).

His case was sent to Stafford Crown Court for a preliminary hearing on December 20. He was given unconditional bail.

Mr Hall had been riding his Yamaha motorbike to its MoT test when the collision occurred, the inquest had heard.

Alcohol

The 61-year-old, of Rowley Grove, Stafford, died of multiple injuries at the University Hospital North Staffordshire.

A post mortem found he had no traces of alcohol or drugs in his system.

The family had told police Mr Hall was an experienced motorcyclist and had held his licence since he was a teenager.

A police investigation was unable to find out how fast both vehicles were travelling at the time of the collision.

Guild is set for TV date

LADIES from a Townswomen's Guild are to feature in a Sky TV documentary.

Great Wyrley Townswomen took part in the filming of the "How to" series produced by PMG TV.

The guild was host to producer Guido Haak and his team, along with national TG chairman Margaret Key and David Brotherton and Jo Egan from Townswomen's Guild headquarters.

Interviews were filmed with key guild members, including chairman Bette Webb, Pauline Benton, the leader of the South Staffs Choir, vice chairman Pam Ball and social secretary Pat Jones. Previous chairmen Pauline Kelsey and Marlene Wilcox were also interviewed.

Margaret Key was filmed and asked about her role as national chairman and the activities of the organisation. Filming also took place during the guild meeting.

Final spiritual reading of year

MONTHLY readings at Heath Hayes Spiritual Church come to an end for 2013 this weekend.

A 30-minute session on Saturday (November 30) costs £12 at the Cabin, Hednesford Road.

Times are from 10am to noon and from 1-4pm on Saturday (November 30). Gift Vouchers will be available, valid until next May for 2014 Saturday sessions.

Call Joyce on 01543 579755 or 07773 398492.

Jean joins children to perform festive tune

BRITAIN'S Got Talent finalist Jean Martyn has written a Christmas song – and will perform it with schoolchildren today (Thursday).

The former Cannock school music teacher is joining a choir at Perry Beeches II for the school's awards night at St Paul's Church in Birmingham's Jewellery Quarter.

Jean has written a song called Christmas Boogie. She said: "I really enjoy working with Perry Beeches. There are no plans for Christmas Boogie to be released at the moment but I'd love it if that happened."

Organist Jean is performing at a carol concert at West Bromwich Town Hall on December 7. It will also feature Langley Brass Band.

Pensioner gets prickly over overgrown nettles

Madeleine Fellows looks at the overgrown nettles on the footpath on Boscomoor Lane, Penkridge

A PENKRIDGE pensioner is calling for an overgrown nettle bush – which she says is a danger – to be removed.

Madeleine Fellows says the nettle bush in Boscomoor Lane has become so overgrown that pedestrians – especially mothers with prams – are having to walk onto the road just to get past.

The 77-year-old, who has to walk down the road to catch a bus, said: "The problem started up again in July.

"But for the past few years the nettle bush has got this big in the summer.

Dangerous

"People walking along the path have to go onto the road to get past and that is just dangerous."

Mrs Fellows, who used to run the Railway Inn in Penkridge, added: " I just wish the council would cut it or put down weed killer down and remove it for good."

County Councillor Simon Tagg, cabinet member for transport, said : ""We can confirm we have received a request for clearing work on Boscomoor Lane and will be carrying out work on this amongst other identified priorities raised in the area as soon as possible."

Builders answer SoS to help out with TV project

BIG-HEARTED builders have gone to the rescue of a wheelchair-bound former electrician whose life was devastated after he suffered a stroke.

The father-of-two was forced to give up work after the attack left him paralysed down one side. It also meant his wife had to leave her job to look after him.

Their plight became known to the producers of the popular BBC TV show DIY SOS, presented by Nick Knowles, who have now built the family an extension with the help and generosity of two Staffordshire firms.

Burntwood-based Uniseal and More Space, Lichfield, travelled to Warrington, where the family lives, to take part in the programme. They helped build a single-storey, timber-clad extension with a bedroom and wet room plus space for hoists.

The two companies donated all the materials and labour free of charge. The programme is due to be aired in eight months time.

Rewarding

Uniseal's Steve Cooper said: "Before this, David's hospital bed was in the kitchen and he had to rely on organised transport once every two weeks just to get a shower.

"This is going to make life so much easier for the whole family and give David back his dignity. He was close to tears when he saw it. It was really rewarding to take part in."

Rewarding – Steve Cooper, left from Uniseal in Burntwood, and Andy McLeod from Morespace after their companies donated materials and time to DIY SOS

Santas to make a dash in village

PENKRIDGE is planning to get the festive season off to a flying start with its Santa Dash on Sunday.

The event, organised by Penkridge & District Round Table, attracted more than 50 Santas last year.

The half mile run starts at 11am sharp from the car park at the top of Market Street. Santa suits cost £5 and are are available from Sew Many Things at Stone Cross in Penkridge, or phone Chris on 07743 095878.

If you already have a suit, you can still come and join the fun. Donations will be collected on the day.

The event marks the start of the Santa Tours, that sees Father Christmas and his sleigh visit all areas of Penkridge and a number of surrounding villages.

Table chairman Elliot Goodbody said: "The annual sleigh tour of Penkridge is hugely popular with all ages of the community. Many of the parents in the village remember Santa visiting when they were children."

Fans still Tolkien about family fun day at library

Ciaran Bill, aged nine, with his clay Ent pot aided by Yvonne Priest during the Hobbit Family Fun Day

MORE than 400 visitors flocked to Hobbit Family Fun Day at Penkridge Library.

The whole Bell Brook facility was given over to celebrating theauthor's links with Staffordshire, and the Chase in particular, in anticipation of the next instalment of the Hobbit movie trilogy due in cinemas next month.

Fantasy fans were treated to a comprehensive display of books, artefacts and memorabilia associated with Tolkien's life and works, and the chance to meet an array of colourful characters. Pride of place in the Tolkien display cabinet was a personal letter from Hobbit director Peter Jackson.

Activities included, fantasy-themed clay craft, cartooning, war-gaming 'paint and play', and the opportunity to add a piece to a very special mosaic art project, designed by the local community, which when completed will be permanently displayed in the library.

Central TV News turned up at the event to film a special tribute to Staffordshire's influence on the great man to be screened later this month.

Tolkien served as an officer in the Lancashire Fusiliers and was stationed on Cannock Chase during the Great War. In 1918 Tolkien was posted back to Staffordshire, and with his wife and new born son John, moved briefly to Penkridge, to a cottage at Gypsy Green on the Teddesley Park Estate, which later featured as Fladweth Amrod or Nomad's Green in his writings for "The Silmarillion".

Councillor Mike Lawrence said "It's clear that Staffordshire had a profound effect on this world famous author, and we're right to feel proud of those links when his worldwide appeal is probably at its highest.

Connect

"Penkridge Library has done a fantastic job of drawing together the references and history which connect this part of our county to the famous author.

"From a Tolkien themed local history walk, this takes in many of the landmarks thought to have inspired and informed his early writing, to arguably one of the best library collections celebrating his life and works in the region.

History of old town buildings

HEDNESFORD A TWG

A COFFEE morning at Doreen's home in aid of Macmillan was a great success with many members attending. A sum of £95 was raised.

Anthony Hunt, historian, gave a very interesting illustrated talk at the guild meeting about the old buildings in Hednesford, the people who lived there and the connection with training and horse racing.

He also told of the infamous John Wright who was known for his court appearances and nicknamed of The King of Hednesford.

The luncheon club meal at The Rag, Cannock Wood, proved to be good value for money and all the 12 members attending have requested to visit again.

Twelve members had an excellent three-course lunch with coffee and mints at the federation lunch at The Terrace restaurant in Brownhills.

The table was shared with the West Bromwich Guild. Altogether there were about 150 townswomen and it was lovely to meet up with other members from the South Staffs guilds.

Margaret Key, Federation Chairman, and key committee members addressed the meeting and entertainment followed from vocalist John Stride who sang in the Michael Bublé style.

Guild meetings are held the second Monday of each month at 2pm at St Peter's Church Hall, Hednesford Newcomers welcome.

Five new members inducted into club

Lions Maureen Pearce, Pam Gabbitas, Maureen Thompson and Carol Wyton

CANNOCK Lions Club have had a fantastic couple of months. They have inducted five new members who are raring to help their community.

Donations have been made to Lions Club International Foundation for the Philippines Disaster Fund, Katharine House Hospice, Newlife, the Portakabin on Beecroft car park, and Breathe Easy, Cannock.

A food collection was organised for the local Foodbank and a ladies night for holistic treatments for breast cancer patients at

CANNOCK LIONS

Stafford Hospital was a great success. The club also did a bag pack at the Cannock branch of Morrisons and had a stall at the Christmas lights switch-on.

Plans are now under way for the senior citizens Christmas meal at St Luke's Church on December 19 and Burns Night supper.

For more about Cannock Lions, check their Facebook page or call 0845 833 4967.

Dabble day well supported

MEMBERS enjoyed a fish and chip supper at the October meeting.

This was followed by a music quiz arranged by committee member Pauline Haywood. There was a range of different types of music and songs covering different eras. A chocolate bar was given to all members for taking part.

The monthly luncheon

CANNOCK TG

club met on the at The Bridge House in Penkridge on October 30.

The federation committee organised a lunch at The Terrace, Brownhills and also a 'craft dabble day' at Pelsall Community Hall.

Both of these events were supported by our members and everyone had a good time.

Speaker for the meeting on November 19 was Ron Rock talking about the bumble bee.

Meetings are held every third Tuesday at 7.30pm at St Luke's Primary School, New Penkridge Road, Cannock. Visitors and new members are welcome. Call 01543 506347 for details.

Dentures that leave customers with smile

An assessment process takes place befor the creation of dentures

Dentures are made to emulate the original teeth – and the difference is clear

THERE'S a really friendly atmosphere as you step through the doors of the Smile Centre, Lichfield.

The reception is calm, comfortable and a nice place to wait for your appointment with Matt Burnell BSc Hons Dip CDT RCS (Eng) Clinical Dental Technician, the lovely chap who runs the Smile Centre.

The Smile Centre focus on designing and fitting dentures – prosthetic enhancements that replace lost teeth.

Dentures can often be seen as rather the poor relation to veneers and caps, but in fact they are as attractive and appearance-changing as any other aspect of cosmetic dentistry.

From as little as £550 clients who wish to replace lost teeth, to one or two or an entire set can have a hand crafted dental prosthesis made.

Creation

When Matt first meets a client he spends as much time as they wish chatting about the process of fitting a denture, and how that denture will fit into their lifestyle. There's no pressure to make a quick decision.

Should the client decide to look at having a denture fitted, an assessment process follows which is the first step towards creation of the denture. This allows dentures to be created that emulates the original teeth.

There are many types of denture option, from a complete denture with a plate that covers the lower and upper roof of the mouth (that stays in place naturally through suction) to a partial denture or horseshoe denture worn with adhesive or clasps. In addition, dentures can be created that clip onto posts (implants) set into the jaw that create a perfect and sturdy bite. Permanent dentures, just like cap and bridge work, can also be set on to implants to fill gaps in the teeth, or to replace a set of teeth that has been lost.

Matt and the team's work shows real attention to detail. Of course, the client isn't aware of the complexity of the adjustments made, there're just delighted and amazed at the outcome.

Dentures are initially made from a mould, or "tray" that is carefully taken of the client's mouth. The teeth in the denture are then individually positioned to create a natural look.

This prototype is formed in the desired final medium. The process is not completed until the customer is entirely happy. Remarkably you can be confident that your finished denture will easily last 15 years or more. The process used to create the denture is called the "lost wax method", the same method used to make high-end intricate bespoke jewellery or bronzes, allowing minute details to be captured.

The right denture not only massively improves the quality of life of each customer, it improves self esteem and even health as food can be properly chewed to release nutrients.

Smile Centre dentures are truly as good as your own teeth, and customers soon think of them as simply part of them, not tricky prosthetics that have to be considered when eating out, etc.

CHARITABLE SCHEME PROMISES ENERGY SAVINGS

A Black Country gas engineering firm is offering families the opportunity to save money on their winter energy bills and raise funds for charity at the same time!

In a bid to help families cope with the recent price hikes announced by the 'Big Six' energy firms Neuxgen, which is based in Cheslyn Hay, is offering free boiler replacements to families who meet a qualifying criteria set by government.

According to The Energy Trust boilers account for around 55% of what families spend in a year on energy bills so an efficient boiler can make a huge difference. Replacing an old gas boiler with an A-rated high-efficiency condensing boiler is expected to significantly cut carbon dioxide emissions - and could save families as much as £310 a year.

What's more, for every boiler that Neuxgen replace the company has pledged to make a financial donation to Wolverhampton based charity Compton Hospice which provides care for patients and families affected by life limiting illnesses.

Dean Gill, of Neuxgen, said "Our business delivers Plumbing, Heating and Electrical services to many different cultures and communities on a day-to-day basis. It is our intention is to support the very people who support us, it's an honour supporting such a remarkable local charity as Compton Hospice in this way and allows Neuxgen to fulfil this community business objective. The beneficiaries of the scheme can expect significantly reduced fuel costs and should expect a first class customer experience at the hands of Neuxgen."

Simon Cater, corporate Fundraiser at Compton Hospice, said "This is a fantastic initiative that will not only greatly benefit Compton Hospice but the general public as well. The scheme couldn't have come at a better time for the public who are feeling the strain of current price hikes from a number of energy firms. We are looking forward to working with Neuxgen and thank them for choosing to support Compton Hospice."

To qualify for a free 'A' Rated High Efficiency Boiler individuals should be receiving one or more of the benefits listed below.

- Pension Credit
- Child Tax Credit with a relevant income of £15,860 or less Income based Job Seekers Allowance, income related Employment and Support Allowance (that includes a work related activity or support component) or Income support, and one of the following:

Turning on style to reach national final

Salon director Jamie Richards celebrates reaching the hairdressing finals with Sarah Gething at Richard's Hair

A GREAT Wyrley hairdresser is heading for the final of a national competition.

Jamie Richards, a former apprentice from City of Wolverhampton College, is one of just three finalists in ghd's Spotlight competition.

As part of the contest, the 25-year-old director at Richard's Hair in Wardles Lane, posted a photograph of his modern twist on the classic ponytail onto the ghd website.

Jamie, who completed his hairdressing NVQ with the college seven years ago, went forward to the finals after his entry was "liked" by more than 5400 people.

He said: "It feels great to get through to the finals and I'm looking forward to the next stage of the competition."

Jamie will compete against the two other finalists in an editorial style photo shoot, for the chance to win a backstage pass to work at London fashion week next February.

The salon still works with City of Wolverhampton College, and currently has two apprentices with them.

Jamie added: "Apprenticeships are great because you get both the knowledge from college and knowledge from the salon.

"You get a feel for the workplace and how to apply your skills in the real world."

Work on rail bridge set to cause delays

WORK will start next month to rebuild a bridge as part of the £30 million electrification of the Chase Line – that could cause months of traffic delays.

The bridge in Station Road, Hednesford will be closed to all traffic on December 15. It will open the following day but close again for three months from January 4.

Work on the bridge, a project likely to cost around £1.1 million, is expected to finish in April. The scheme began with work to upgrade the bridge in Bloxwich last week.

Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson, who also sits on Hednesford Town Council, welcomed the move.

Demolition

He said: "We are all in favour of electrification. The idea is to speed up journeys."

The bridge in Station Road is just one of many that will be rebuilt or modified to allow for the electrification of the train line.

Demolition works started last at the Broad Lane bridge in Bloxwich.

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley said: "Electrification will not only transform journeys for my constituents who will experience faster, smoother and more frequent journeys but it will also go a huge way to help support my efforts to bring business to the area.

by Laura Blyth

"It will also reinforce the message that Cannock Chase is the place to come to in Staffordshire – to live, work and for leisure."

Once all bridge works have been completed, electrification work will get under way in 2015 with the overall multi-million pound scheme set for completion in late 2017.

It will see the installation of 15 miles of overhead cables. Diesel trains will also be replaced by electric ones. Drivers are being warned that the work could lead to disruptions for drivers.

Councillor Doris Grice, who represents Hednesford North, said: "The bridge closure will cause some problems for traffic."

Moderate trek by ramblers

CHASE & District Group Ramblers head off on a moderate eight-mile walk at Upper Ellastone towards Ashbourne, this Sunday, December 1. Departure time is Hednesford rail station car park, Anglesey Street, at 9am.

Dancers step out to 117 trophies

Dani Grove, Tom Randall and Hayley Collins, who were three of the dancers from Style Dance Academy

TALENTED young dancers have waltzed off with a staggering 117 trophies in a European contest.

Style Dance Academy, based at Calf Heath Village Hall, took 25 dancers to the freestyle dance European Championships in Prestatyn, North Wales. And members picked up a haul of 117 trophies including 27 European titles.

Among the big winners were Tom Randall, aged 20, Dani Grove, 16, and 19-year-old Hayley Collins.

Tom picked up five titles including the champion of champions gong. Dani won two individual awards and Hayley picked up three.

Teacher Lisa Dyke paid tribute to her award-winning dancers.

She said: "I was absolutely over the moon.

"It is recognition for all the hard work throughout the year and efforts from everyone. As their teacher I was very proud."

Mrs Dyke has run the school in Cannock for eight years and has others in Birmingham and Bristol. She said: "Dance is a fantastic vocation to get kids of the street, see them develop and flourish. I also go into schools and I have seen how it can bring the shyest child out of their shell.

"It is such a rewarding thing for young people to do and they can all be very proud of themselves."

Anyone interested in joining the academy can call Mrs Dyke on 07793124982 or visit www.styledanceacademy.co.uk

Start-up loans help to create new businesses

TEN entrepreneurs across Cannock Chase have been able to set up their own business thanks to a Government start-up loan.

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley welcomed the figures. He said: "Because of the financial crisis we inherited, people who want to set up a new business have often found it hard to get a loan. This has prevented people with ideas and aspiration from putting their business plans into action."

The Conservative MP added: "New businesses are the lifeblood of a healthy economy, helping to create jobs and growth. Here in Cannock Chase £43,425 has been lent to ten budding entrepreneurs. This will ensure that all their potential and ideas don't go to waste."

Celtic band Quill hitting the road for theatre tour

MIDLANDS folk-rock Quill are calling on an old friend as they embark on their first major theatre tour, one that takes in Wolverhampton and Cannock.

The six-piece has been performing for more than 40 years, but have overcome the death of bass guitarist Ben Brain to hit the road once more.

Singer Joy Strachan-Brain

Ben died suddenly in April 2012. Fronted by his wife Joy Strachan-Brain, Quill released Ben's self-penned EP England as a tribute before then vowing to carry on the legacy he had begun.

Performing with Jasper Carrott and Bev Bevan at the Made in Brum rock show gave the Celtic band the impetus to keep their four decades in the business going. And former Move and ELO star Bevan will be performing alongside them on set dates during the tour.

Joy said: "We're finding with the recession that many smaller clubs or venues are closing down, so we decided to play the bigger theatres.

Sell-out

"We have been going a long time and we are really looking forward to it."

Quill will perform songs from the 70s to the present day with a set list that includes new and original material.

The band have already performed to a sell-out audience at the Lichfield Garrick. They perform at the Robin 2 in Bilston on December 29, with tickets priced at £9, or £10 on the door. Call 01902 401211.

An appearance at the Prince of Wales follows on February 14, with tickets priced at £18, or £15 if bought before January 1. Call 01543 578762.

Ladies night aids charity

A GARDEN centre is staging a ladies night to raise money for its charity partner. Dobbies, Gailey is hosting the evening tonight (Thursday) from 5-9pm.

The exclusive shopping evening will feature new gift ranges, expert advice, food and craft demonstrations, musical entertainment and pamper sessions, all with the aim of making the most of Christmas.

Tickets are £1 and include a glass of fizz on arrival. All proceeds will be donated to its charity partner Make-A-Wish Foundation UK, which grants wishes to children and young people fighting life-threatening conditions.

Lisa Bird, community champion at Dobbies, Gailey, said: "Following the huge success of our first ladies night event last year, there was a demand to host it again.

"Dobbies' ladies night has everything you need to make Christmas go with a bang and help us to raise money for our national Christmas charity partner.

Rock Dogs play

ROCK covers band The Rock Dogs perform at The Winding Wheel, Heath Hayes on Saturday (November 30). They play the likes of Kings of Leon, Foo Fighters, Maroon 5 and Stereophonics. Entry is free and the gig starts at 9pm.

Finishing touches put to church stable trail

VOLUNTEERS are finalising plans for a nativity with a difference. The stable trail at St Augustine's Church has become a highlight for many in Rugeley as they prepare for the festive season.

Churchgoers recreate key moments in the Christmas story and visitors are taken through each scene in turn.

It takes place on Saturday December 14, with sessions starting at 10am and 2pm. There will also be a range of Christmas-themed craft activities and refreshments.

Youngsters are welcome to dress as one of the characters in the story and have their picture taken as part of the relevant scene. Further details from Sue Whitehouse on 01889 800939 or the parish office, 01889 574157, on Tuesday or Friday mornings.

Mean, moody and masked at show

Unmasked . . . Simon Graham and David Skarratts, from Walsall, and Simon Greenaway, from Great Wyrley, with their film memorabilia at the exhibition

TENS of thousands of movie, comic and film fans turned out in their droves to see stars of the big and small screen at the Memorabilia and Comic Con show in Birmingham.

James Bond star Richard Kiel, who was charging £20 for an autograph, was among the stars who turned out for the convention at the NEC. Famous faces signed photographs and had their pictures taken with fans, alongside stalls selling and displaying memorabilia and other collectables.

Many who flocked to the show at the weekend, also donned costumes for the occasion, with Darth Vader, Spiderman and Dr Who among those seen in the arena.

Simon Greenaway from Bloxwich-based Sigma Arts was exhibiting as part of the Replica Prop Forum.

The 25-year-old who lives in Great Wyrley and is a carpenter by trade, said: "I do the Predator replicas. I've always loved art and films and so it is just a blend of the two. I've come here for the last three years, it's a great event.

"The variety of stuff here is really good and it is a good place to showcase work."

Ales well at brewery as business is on increase

A BREWERY that more than tripled its beer production following a £250,000 expansion has invested another £25,000 in equipment after winning new business.

By David Banner

Backyard Brewhouse in Brownhills has increased its brewing capacity from 4,000 to 12,000 pints a week in just over a year. Bosses have now bought two new fermenting vessels to cope with demand and increase capacity to more than 16,000 pints.

And they have hinted there could be more jobs on the horizon, after four new staff were taken on since the brewery's expansion.

The firm, which now supplies around 200 pubs, recently won business from major companies such as Punch Taverns and J D Wetherspoon and hopes to branch out into supermarkets in its latest venture.

Director Austen Morgan said: "We have invested a further £25,000 in the brewery on top of the £250,000 for the expansion. We are looking at how we can approach supermarkets in terms of bottle sales."

The expansion work last year saw the brewery in Lichfield Road grow from 1,400 sq ft to 2,500 sq ft and new equipment was installed. "The aim was to be at full capacity in 18 months to two years, but growth was faster than anticipated," Mr Morgan said. "We came closer to capacity in 12 months.

"At the point we closed to do the expansion, we were doing 4,000 pints a week. We are now doing 12,000 pints a week. This does not include bottle sales."

The brewery, based at the Gatehouse Trading Estate, which celebrated its fifth birthday in June, has also installed a new process chiller to fine-tune the way in which its beers ferment.

The firm's bottled range has also continued to grow in popularity with several specialist wholesalers now stocking its beers.

Brewery bosses took over The Fountain Inn, in Lower Forster Street, last year and reopened the 150-year-old pub after a revamp costing almost £100,000.

Last readings of the year

SPIRITUAL readings take place at a Heath Hayes church this weekend. The monthly, one-to-one tarot and angel card readings are held on the last Saturday of every month at Heath Hayes Spiritualist Church, the Cabin, Hednesford Road, from 10am to noon and between 1 and 4pm. The last session of 2013 takes place on November 30. A 30-minute reading costs £12. Call Joyce on 01543 579755 or 07773 398492. Gift Vouchers will be available on the day – valid until next May for 2-14 Saturday sessions.

It's all getting hairy for man and machine

A DISPLAY of moustachioed machines has been turning heads in Cannock as Finning, one of the world's largest distributors of Cat equipment and power systems, shows its support for Movember.

As well as giving a moustache-makeover to three Cat articulated dump trucks and literally "flying the Movember flag" outside its A5 headquarters, the company has sponsored more than 150 of its employees to take part in raising funds and awareness for men's health. The company is making a contribution to the cause for each employee joining the campaign across its network of branches.

More than £10,000 has already been raised by Finning for the annual challenge.

The Movember crew, with 'hairy' machine, at Finnings

Service operator John Darby sports a Movember tache

Lee Andrews, equipment solutions business manager said:"Our business is supportive of a range of charities, including Breast Cancer Campaign's "Wear It Pink" which we support each year. Given that 80 per cent of our workforce is male, we thought it was time to redress the balance this year and boost our support for Movember."

Memory

John Darby, service operator and a member of the company's Central West Service Movember team, is taking part in memory of his cousin Chris Jones who passed away at the age of 56 in 2011 having been diagnosed with prostate cancer six years earlier.

John said, "Chris was like a brother to me, he was my best man and one of my closest friends.

"The lives of his wife Andrea and their two children, Oliver and Charlotte, will never be the same. Chris was also an only child so his mother, Joyce, has been devastated by the loss of her son.

"Chris had everything to live for. His children were only in their 20s when they lost their father; so it has been a huge loss for them to have to cope with at that age."

Grants on offer to help repair town's buildings

OWNERS of historic commercial buildings in Rugeley town centre are being urged to apply for grants to help fund repairs.

The scheme is funded by Cannock Chase Council, Staffordshire County Council and English Heritage and the deadline for applications is March 2014. It aims to help businesses in conservation areas make repairs by contributing to more than half the cost of the work.

The first projects were completed earlier this year in Anson Street.

Councillors said the work will help conserve and enhance the town's character and appearance and safeguard the long-term future of important buildings.

Councillor Gordon Alcott, portfolio leader for economic development and planning, said: "It is hoped that the work taking place will encourage other building owners to invest in their own properties resulting in more widespread improvements to encourage economic regeneration in the area."

Traditional materials and repair methods will be used based on the advice of conservation-accredited architects and engineers.

Councillor Diane Todd, portfolio leader for town centre regeneration, said the scheme was also available to help bring back into use empty shops and support new and expanding business enterprises.

For details, visit www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk or call 01543 464517.

All set for the lights switch-on

A PACKED programme of events has been organised for Rugeley's Christmas lights switch-on tomorrow evening (Friday).

More than 60 traders will line the streets with a stalls selling a variety of goods from 1pm.

Attractions include an ice rink in Market Square, Santa pulled in his sleigh by reindeer and music from the Rugeley Power Station Band.

There will also be fairground rides, a candy floss and doughnut maker, as well as a performance by the Salvation Army before the lights are switched on at 6pm.

Rugeley Traders Association chairman Chris Green said: "There will be something to draw crowds in every direction."

There will be a firework finale at 7pm on the top of Market Hall car park.

Friends open shop

Friends Sally Sandel and Natalie Pettitt, who have opened shop PS I Love You in Rugeley

A MOTHER of two has opened a shop in Rugeley just months after being made redundant. Natalie Pettitt lost her job at Thompson Local in Bromsgrove in August but she has now set up an underwear shop called PS I Love You, in Upper Brook Street, with school friend Sally Sandel.

Mrs Pettitt said: "I was two weeks into my maternity leave when a colleague called to say the company had gone into administration and we had all been made redundant.

"Me and Sally have been friends since secondary school. Neither of us could ever find bras to fit us so we decided that would be our shop. We've got bras in all different sizes and in larger than normal sizes."

Mrs Pettitt and Mrs Sandel, aged 33, who works part time as a nurse manager, were offered help from Cannock Chase Council and free business rates for a year.

LOVING BURNTWOOD... LOVING RAWLINS TYRES...

From a site that was derelict for many years Rawlins Tyres Ltd have built a thriving family business with growth for the future.

In a new development for the company, Rawlins Tyres have extended their services further to include Class 4, 5 and 7 MOT tests covering most vehicles on the road. The brand new MOT testing facilities are now fully operational which means that the team can now provide for all your motoring maintenance and repair requirements by providing the highest quality workmanship at a very competitive price.

BEFORE

In 2009, the Rawlins family, including father, son and wives, combined forces to open their new venture starting off by offering tyre sales and car repairs. In 2010, they extended the range of services available by creating a car wash. Since then, their business has gone from strength to strength generating apprenticeships for grandsons Shane and Jack.

Rawlins Tyres supply and fit quality branded and budget tyres with wheel balancing being performed during the fitting process. Laser line tracking alignment can also be provided along with puncture repairs and alloy wheel repairs and refurbishment. To ensure your safety FREE tyre checks can be carried out, too. All prices include the fitting of a new valve, wheel balancing, fitting, the disposal of your old tyres and VAT.

The team can supply tyres of cars, 4x4, vans, trailers, caravans, motorhomes and even the odd wheel barrow!

NOW

A full range of garage services can be provided to keep your vehicle in excellent working condition.

These include servicing and repair work on virtually any make or model of car along with battery, brake, exhausts and cambelt replacement.

The technicians fit genuine parts to all makes of vehicle. From an interim service to a full service they provide a first class workmanship and customer care.

They will give you a full inspection service sheet, your service book will be stamped and you'll gain unbeatable value.

A vehicle collection service is available. Rawlins Tyres has a warm, clean and comfortable reception. What's more, you can look forward to receiving a warm and friendly welcome.

You'll find Rawlins Tyres Ltd at Burntwood Auto Centre on Lichfield Road, Burntwood WS7 0HJ.

A Meadows-powered truck outside the sales department

ONE of the many large manufacturing companies which used to be dotted around Wolverhampton, dominating the suburbs where they were located was Henry Meadows.

by Alec Brew

The company was formed in April 1919 at a meeting of local businessmen with connections to the many local vehicle makers in the Little Swan pub, in Horseley Fields.

They saw a need for a company to build gearboxes, and Henry Meadows himself, who gave his name to the company, and who had been employed at Clyno, Wolverhampton, and Harper Bean, Tipton, became the first managing director.

Factory buildings were erected in Park Lane, Fallings Park, next to the Guy Truck factory, and the first gearbox was delivered for fitment to a Vulcan lorry in May 1920.

Smaller manufacturers became Meadows' customers, and they wanted to buy engine and gearboxes complete, so the company soon began supplying these to the likes of Lagonda, Lea-Francis and Frazer-Nash.

In the late in 1930s the company began developing a diesel engine, but the Second World War intervened, and Meadows engines were soon in great demand for tanks, generating sets, lighting seta, motor-torpedo boats and much more.

When an MTB engine/gearbox combination was being test run, the whole of Fallings Park could hear it. The first Meadows diesel was delivered in 1947, to Guy Motors next door, and the company was soon building a range of diesel engines, for trucks, boats, trains and generating sets.

In 1957 the company decided to start building light cars, a 2+2 seater powered by a 250cc Villiers two stroke engine, which they called the Frisky.

The glass fibre bodies were made by Guy and pushed through a hole in the adjoining wall between the two factories to be fitted to the cars.,

Almost 1,500 Frisky cars were built between then and 1961, by which time the company had been taken over by Associated British Engineering Company and the Park Lane factory closed, another great Wolverhampton name had disappeared.

APPRENTICESHIPS ARE THE FUTURE FOR CONSTRUCTION. SEE FOR YOURSELF!

Tiling skills are put into practice at the construction academy amongst others

Richard Eaton of Eaton Property Services with his apprentice Adam.

Targeted Training Projects (TTP) have developed a unique access to apprenticeship Pathway training facility, delivering the maintenance operations apprenticeship framework to train young people aged 16-24years in various trades.

TTP deliver a property maintenance course where apprentices gain experience in carpentry, bricklaying, plastering, plumbing, roofing, tiling, painting and decorating. We have Training centres in Cannock, Birmingham and Kingswinford. For the initial stages of the course candidates develop their skills in different trades and work towards obtaining a CSCS card, allowing them to work on construction sites. When they have developed the skill levels required, they can then apply for employment with LATA and obtain a placement working in the construction industry. This is where you can make a difference to a young person's life. We are currently in partnership with sole traders, small businesses and large companies.

The government are giving small and medium businesses a grant of £1,500 after the first 13 weeks when employing an apprentice directly. This grant is to incentivise businesses to take on 16 – 24 year olds and helps grow your business. TTP deliver training both practical and theoretical skills e.g. Time keeping, good work ethics, Health and Safety, Maths and English. This enables young people to gain the confidence to work on real properties within the construction sector.

The ultimate goal of the construction academies is to encourage young people to want to work in the construction sector and give them the skills to allow them to gain employment either with small builders or property maintenance companies, right through to housing associations and local authorities.

Adam Started with TTP in March 2013. Whilst in centre Adam has achieved his functional skills in Maths. Adam already had his English qualification. He has learnt various trades including plastering, painting and brick work he has also achieved CSCS card. Richard Eaton of Eaton Property Services with his apprentice Adam. Richard said "I had been thinking about an apprentice, but when Kay Brown from LATA rang me it was all made so easy. It is a great help having an apprentice and I am proud to know I am helping the youth of today. Also the government grant of £1,500 is a great help for a small business, so having an apprentice is a no brainer really."

Keith Lewis form Lewis Property Solutions and his apprentice Anthony.

Anthony Started with TTP in January 2013.Whilst in centre has achieved his functional skills in English already. He has learnt various trades including plastering, painting and brick work he has also achieved CSCS card. . This has put him in an excellent position to gain an apprenticeship with Lewis Property Solutions.

Keith Lewis form Lewis Property Solutions and his apprentice Anthony. Keith said "There are very few opportunities for kids these days and trades are dying! If there are kids out there willing to learn, the trades should support them. It is rewarding to pass on your skills

A PAINTING called Kingfisher and Merlin in the Sheds by Peter Whitehouse has won Heath Hayes Art Society's annual award.

He received his certificate on Monday along with runners-up John Tooth, with Tropical Island, Gilllian Elliot, with Snowed In, and Cynthia Thomas with Lost Paradise.

The exhibition has now finished but these pieces of art and many more with be on show at a first-ever exhibition in the New Aquarius Ballroom, Hednesford. Chairperson Mary Carpenter said: "We are very proud to stage this event in the new venue and have joined forces with Acton Society to provide a large selection of painting of all subjects and mediums, some of which will be for sale.

"We do hope the public will support us and come and look at our work."

The exhibition is in the Pisces Suite on December 6 and 7 from 10am to 4pm.

Parents win travel fight

PARENTS are celebrating after winning an appeal for their children to receive free school travel.

They lobbied Staffordshire County Council to exempt them from rules forcing parents to pay their children's travel costs if they live within three miles of their school.

Around 15 families living on Broad Lane in Essington argued the route to their local secondary school, Cheslyn Hay Sport & Community High, was not safe to walk. Now the council has met their demands to re-evaluate the route and offer free bus travel.

Councillor David Clifft, who took up the cause on behalf of residents, said it was a 'really positive result'.

He said: "I very much shared parents' strong concerns that the route wasn't safe and called on officers to walk the route with myself and parents.

"Part of the route meant walking down New Landywood Lane, which is a country lane, with no public footpath or lighting and having a national speed limit. There are also a number of sharp bends which give limited visibility both for drivers and walkers."

Following requests, the county council sent officers to walk the route with parents to reassess its safety. They decided children should be granted free travel and are now working to make the move possible. Councillor Clifft said: "It is very good news."

The designated walking route, which follows Long Lane, New Landywood Lane and Strawberry Lane, had been named a Safe Route To School. But parents argued it was anything but.

Take a look at Chadsmoor

Chadsmoor and High Town to the north-east of Cannock represent the late-19th-and 20th-century expansion of the town as a mining area.

They now form an almost continuously built-up area joining Cannock to Hednesford. Much of West Chadsmoor consists of council and other housing dating from between the two World Wars and later.

As well as its popular row of niche village shops, Chadsmoor is a popular place for eating out with a number of Indian takeaways within a short distance.

It has a distinctive church history with a school-church being opened in 1874, with transepts and a small chancel being added in 1876. The foundation stone of the present church of St Chad was laid at Easter 1891 'in the presence of a large company of miners and their families', and the church was consecrated in 1892. It is built of machine-made red brick and consists of nave, chancel, south porch, vestry, and organ chamber. Stained glass was inserted in the east window in 1908 in memory of Tabitha Benton. There is one bell in a turret at the north-west corner of the church.

The small wooden church of St Aidan in Pye Green Road, West Chadsmoor, was in use from 1947 to 1956 when it was converted into a church hall. It had one bell. The present church, begun in 1955 on a nearby site on the opposite side of the road, was opened in 1956, the architects being Wood, Goldstraw, and Yorath of Stoke on Trent. Built of light-brown brick, the church consists of a wide nave, a shallow chancel, a south vestry, and a north porch, and has one bell.

A Primitive Methodist chapel was built at Chadsmoor in 1876 and was replaced in 1911 by a new chapel built in front of it. By 1956, the former chapel was being used as a Sunday school and also as a day school. The present chapel, of red brick with stone Gothic windows and doorways, was designed by Jeffries and Shipley.

There is one Baptist chapel, built in Arthur Street, in 1905 at a cost of £1,000. It replaced an earlier Baptist chapel, which stands behind it and was built in 1879. This former chapel was used as a Sunday school and as an overflow for Chadsmoor Central Boys' School. The present chapel is of red brick with stone dressings and leaded windows. It has seating accommodation for 250.

Bruce Forsyth

Strictly Come Dancing BBC1, 7pm

So far we've had the romance of a love week and the frights of Halloween – now the seven remaining couples will be paying homage to musicals from stage and screen. If the routines turn out to be more worthy of a Golden Raspberry award than an Oscar, there will at least be a group dance by the professionals to the title song from Cole Porter's classic Anything Goes. No doubt judges Len Goodman, Darcey Bussell, Bruno Tonioli and Craig Revel Horwood will be on their feet applauding after that. Bruce Forsyth and Tess Daly present.

Tony Robinson

1066: The Lost Battlefield – A Time Team Special
Channel 4, 8pm
This one-off focuses on where the Battle of Hastings was fought in 1066. The title of the conflict should give archaeologists a major clue, but apparently no evidence for it has ever been found – so have they been barking up the wrong tree all these years? Tony Robinson looks on as a dig once again comes up with nothing – but cutting edge aerial technology could hold the key to unlocking secrets a thousand years old, including why Harold lost, and William became a conqueror.

MONDAY

Training Day, ITV, 11.10pm

A cop embarks on his first day in narcotics, partnering a seasoned officer whose willingness to flout the rules forces him to question everything he has learnt. As they resort to extreme measures to crack a case, the rookie is left battling his conscience in a dangerous situation. Thriller, starring Denzel Washington, Ethan Hawke, Scott Glenn and Tom Berenger. (2001)

TUESDAY

The American President, ITV, 11.35pm

The US president embarks on a relationship with an environmental lobbyist – but his delighted opponents jump at the chance to drag the pair through the gutter press, putting their romance and his career in jeopardy. Rob Reiner's political comedy, starring Michael Douglas, Annette Bening, Martin Sheen, Richard Dreyfuss and Michael J Fox. Written by Aaron Sorkin, who would later return to the White House as creator of The West Wing. (1995)

Training Day, Monday, ITV, 11.10pm

WEDNESDAY

Snatch, Channel 5, 10pm

An unlicensed boxing promoter and his dim-witted sidekick convince an Irish gypsy to step in for their injured fighter, but find themselves drawn into a match-fixing racket. Meanwhile, the loot from a diamond heist goes missing, leading to a bloody conflict between Russian gangsters and a Jewish mob. Guy Ritchie's comedy drama, with Jason Statham, Brad Pitt, Benicio Del Toro, Mike Reid, Jason Flemyng, Alan Ford and Vinnie Jones. (2000)

THURSDAY

Three Wise Women, Channel 5, 3.15pm

A successful doctor is preparing to get married, but does not realise she is settling for the wrong man. At Christmas, she receives a visit from her guardian angel, who tries to stop her making a terrible mistake – with the aid of the medic's younger selves. Fantasy, starring Amy Huberman and Fionnula Flanagan. (2010)

FRIDAY

The Grudge 2, ITV, 11.10pm

After barely surviving a fire that burned a cursed Tokyo house to the ground, Karen Davis is recovering in hospital. Karen's sister Aubrey travels to Japan to bring her home, but her investigation into the suspicious events leading up to her sibling's injury sets Aubrey on a frantic mission to prevent menacing supernatural beings from reaching the US. Horror sequel, with Amber Tamblyn, Sarah Michelle Gellar, Edison Chen and Arielle Kebbel. (2006)

Pick of the Week

Robbie swings back into the nation's hearts

Many Robbie Williams fans have their favourite standout gig, whether it's his 2001 Royal Albert Hall show, in which he belted out classic Swing When You're Winning tracks, or the 2003 Knebworth show, captured on the DVD What We Did Last Summer.

Obviously there's been a lot of water under the bridge since then, with his contribution to Take That's superb Progress tour, and his more recent solo work.

For many, his take on Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Sammy Davis Jr's classics was a career highlight 12 years ago, and on November 8 there was a sense that things had come full circle.

Of course not everyone was able to get to the London Palladium to witness his latest evening of swing music, so Robbie Williams One Night at the Palladium is a chance to see what you missed.

Performing tracks from new album Swings Both Ways, he is joined by special guests Lily Allen and Rufus Wainwright and Muppets Kermit the Frog and Miss Piggy.

"Moi is always thrilled to perform at the Palladium, no matter who I have to share the stage with," remarked the porcine superstar. "But being up there with moi's dear friend Robbie Williams and Kermie will make this night even more spectacular!"

Well, quite.

Williams has suffered many highs and lows since he last belted out a load of swing classics for a paying audience.

In 2002, his mammoth £80million contract with EMI was one of the biggest music deals in history.

The album Escapology, co-penned with Guy Chambers, included a couple of crackers in Come Undone and Feel. Both peaked at number four in the UK charts, while the album itself was a huge hit worldwide, topping the charts in more than a dozen countries, including here.

His 2005 album Intensive Care was also a global smash, but a year later many fans were disappointed with his follow-up, Rudebox.

Despite impressive production from the likes of Mark Ronson and the Pet Shop Boys, it looked like Robbie pre-empted his fate and 'came undone.'

By 2009 he scraped back some credibility with the album Reality Killed the Video Star, a project boosted by the work of super producer Trevor Horn.

Admittedly the track Morning Sun struggled in the UK charts, but Bodies was much stronger, hitting number 2.

In 2010, his long-awaited reunion with Take That saw Williams back on form, both on the album Progress, and their stunning tour, which left each of the five band members a reported £7million better off.

Having healed a much-publicised rift with Gary Barlow, their duet Shame won over Take That fans, while Barlow-penned 2012 track Candy saw Robbie back at the top of the charts for the first time since 2004's Radio.

Now, with old mate Guy Chambers back on board as songwriter, it looks like the 39-year-old has bounced back from the brink once more.

So, if this new century keeps bringing you down, settle back and enjoy as one of Blighty's greatest showmen works his magic once more.

MONDAY

A Great British Christmas with Sarah Beeny
Channel 4, 8pm

Should Kirstie Allsopp be feeling worried? For the past couple of years, she's normally cropped up on Channel 4 in December with her own festive special. But this year, she's been gazumped by fellow property expert Sarah Beeny, who is getting in first with her own one-off Christmas documentary. Sarah, her artist husband Graham Swift and their four children are exploring how festive celebrations have changed over the past 200 years. They are particularly keen to discover how previous generations would have marked the season in their stately home, Rise Hall in East Yorkshire, which the clan have spent 10 years restoring. However, they'll also be looking further afield for yuletide rituals, as they learn more about the historical context of everything from garlands to cards.

Ripper Street
BBC1, 9pm

Poor Drake. His work life is beset by violence and the sight of grisly deaths – and now it seems he won't be getting much comfort in his home life. Since Ripper Street returned to our screens, Drake has been happily married to Bella – but a blast from her past is about to turn their world upside down. Meanwhile, Reid asks Jewish mathematician Isaac Bloom for help when it becomes clear that somebody is trying to upset the fragile peace among Whitechapel's diverse communities by burning the local churches and synagogues to the ground. Reid has dealt with many weird occurrences during his police career, but what Bloom tells him about these attacks would shock even the most hard-bitten and hard-hearted detective...

TUESDAY

Pilgrimage with Simon Reeve
BBC2, 9pm

Having navigated the Equator and the Indian Ocean, surely it was time for Simon Reeve to explore somewhere closer to home. The affable presenter does just that in his new series, which sees him retracing the adventures of our ancestors. The series commences with Reeve embarking on a 500-mile journey from Lindisfarne to Canterbury. From there, he travels to Lincoln and London, where he joins up with Chaucer fans for the last leg, made famous by the Canterbury Tales. Along the way, Reeve uncovers the real reason that many medieval peasants undertook pilgrimages: it was an excuse to leave their working lives behind and see the country – something most of us can appreciate today.

WEDNESDAY

28 Up South Africa
ITV, 10.35pm

Over the years – and there have been quite a few of them – the Up series has made for sensational viewing and been massively influential. Ever since 1964, the documentary, originally a social study, has returned every seven years to focus on a varied group of people. It has been a huge hit with audiences. Tonight, we're updated on the personal journeys of a group of young people born in South Africa during the apartheid era. The country in the meantime has become fully integrated, and those same children are now 28. We're about to hear how new opportunities have opened up for them as they've journeyed through their 20s, and how they now lead very different lives. Among them, Lizette says her coal-mining town is the worst place on Earth, while Olwethu discusses her marriage, and Willem talks sport now that he's a rugby union international for the Springboks.

28 Up South Africa, Wednesday, ITV, 10.35pm

THURSDAY

Keeping Britain Safe 24/7
BBC1, 8.30pm

Most of us go through life without giving much of a second thought to what barriers stand between us and catastrophe at any given moment. This documentary pays tribute to the unsung individuals who keep those barriers in place, through their tireless work – be they the firefighters kept busy on Bonfire Night or the midwives dealing with an autumnal baby boom. Julia Bradbury and Matt Allwright are the presenters championing their causes, and they also turn the spotlight on railway workers that keep the country moving in the face of those dreaded leaves on the line.

FRIDAY

Wild Burma: Nature's Lost Kingdom
BBC2, 9pm

It's safe to say, we're a little bit jealous of wildlife filmmakers Gordon Buchanan and Justine Evans, who are currently enjoying exploring deep into the little-known jungle wilderness of Burma. Still, it might not be quite the same thing, but at least we get to follow them every step of the way with this series. In the second instalment, Gordon and Justine make their way into the mountains of western Burma in search of the sun bear, the Asian golden cat and the clouded leopard. Meanwhile, zoologist Ross Piper and his team continue their mission to form a wildlife survey in the hope that they'll eventually present it to the government of Burma, and undercover filming in a border town leads them to a shocking discovery.

Live at the Apollo
BBC1, 9.30pm

It's not like 8 Out of 10 Cats star Sean Lock struggles as a comedian, but if the punchlines ever did dry up he could have a career as an impressionist – at least he does if this edition of the stand-up show is anything to go by, which sees him adopt an eerily convincing Bruce Forsythe and a suitably over-the-top Bruno Tonioli. That's before showing off his compering skills by introducing sets by grumpy stand-up Romesh Ranganathan and actor and funnyman Marcus Brigstocke (who proves he actually has a pretty good Columbo up his sleeve).

Starter home initiative on offer

MORRIS Homes is urging first-time buyers in South Staffordshire to take advantage of its Great Start scheme to get on the property ladder with a deposit of five per cent.

The initiative is available at its Hatherton Place development, Cheslyn Hay, for people buy their first home but only if they live and work in South Staffordshire.

With new figures showing 63 per cent of people delay buying a home because they are worried about raising a big enough deposit, the scheme can help first-time buyers get on the move sooner than they thought.

Buyers using Great Start only need five per cent of the value of the property as a deposit to secure a new home at the New Horse Road development. Morris will then provide a loan of a further 20 per cent to use as a deposit.

With a combined deposit of 25 per cent the buyer is able to access a greater range of mortgages with lower interest rates, providing the extra assistance needed to get onto the property ladder.

Under the scheme, buyers own the full property. The loan is interest-free for the first five years, and needs to be paid back over 10 years or when the house is sold.

The first-time buyers must have a maximum household income of £60,000, and is offered on a selection of two-bedroom Budworth properties. Cindy Cade, regional sales director for Morris, said: "Our Great Start scheme is ideal for local buyers in South Staffordshire that are struggling to get on the property ladder, as it can make it easier for them to secure a mortgage.

"There are only a limited number of homes available using the scheme at Hatherton Place, so we are urging interested buyers to visit the site now to reserve their new home before it is too late."

Hatherton Place combines a tranquil village location with convenient access for commuting into Cannock, Birmingham and Stoke-on-Trent.

The two-bedroom homes available at the site with Great Start are on sale from £149,750 or £119,800 with the scheme.

Success is generating demand for sales as agency takes off

TRADING for a new Cannock letting agency began six months ago in May, and already the business has expanded to include sales and covers property management in Cannock, Hednesford, Heath Hayes, Lichfield, Burntwood, Rugeley and the surrounding areas.

Much of Harrigan Lettings' success is down to principal Suzanne Harrigan from Burntwood, whose 22 years experience in the sector has led to the business already managing more than 100 different properties.

As a landlord herself, Suzanne prides herself in looking after a property as if it was her own and offers a let only, rent collection or fully managed service at reasonable rates with no hidden or extra charges.

Kevin Simpson brings commercial experience to the Harrigan team with principal Suzanne

Experience

Due to initial success of the business Kevin Simpson from Hednesford has joined the team bringing his experience in commercial lettings and property management field.

Support from landlords Suzanne has worked with in the past has been overwhelming, Bill Harvey, a current landlord said: "After being unhappy with my current lettings agent I visited the Harrigan Lettings office and was impressed by the set up of the office and professionalism of the team.

"Most notably I was impressed with Suzanne's success of letting the 23 out of 25 empty units that were in the Lightworks complex when she took over managing it in May.

"As a result I was happy for Harrigan to take over my portfolio of properties including my new development on Hednesford Road, Cannock."

Another client, Brian Williams said: "I have known Suzanne, in her professional capacity for many years and I have always found her to be honest and efficient in her dealings with me and my tenants.

"When I had to terminate my agreement with a previous letting agent she was on hand to help me re-let my property very quickly.

"If I had more properties in her area I would have no hesitation in appointing Harrigan Lettings as my agent."

Mr Stuart Royston Ramsell and Nick Paul Tulley directors of Roadtech Cutting Services Ltd said: "After knowing Suzanne Harrigan for a number of years we were delighted when she decided to start her own property management business.

Challenge

"She had managed a number of my properties for a couple of years.

"When Suzanne set up I thought I would give her a challenge of letting two of my new developments consisting of 25 units and nine new build apartments.

"Due to the success achieved in the first couple of months on turning an empty shopping mall into a 95 per cent let complex I was more than happy for the Harrigan Lettings team to take over the management of my whole portfolio."

Fees are very competitive for sales and if clients have a property to let – empty or tenanted – they should call 01543 871500 for further details.

Alternatively, the website www.harringanlettings.co.uk has further details.

Performance and economy in a Mercedes

DRIVING a good-looking or arresting car often attracts admiring glances. Occasionally, the attention can be unwelcome. Here's a case in point.

By Sharon Walters

I rented a house in the south of France for a holiday earlier this year and drove down in a Mercedes CLA.

What a lovely trip it was going to be. And indeed it was, except for one incident on my way out just south of Lyon.

I was driving along a dual carriageway and overtook a rather battered looking small French car. The vehicle then proceeded to overtake mine and its occupants gestured for me to pull over.

Suspicious of their motives, I immediately took advantage of the car's power to leave others standing and left them well behind.

I was driving the CLA 220 CDI, the only diesel model available, which has excellent in-gear acceleration, as I discovered. This is especially true in sport mode, which I quickly engaged, where the throttle response and gearshifts from the dual-clutch gearbox are sharp indeed. It will also get up to 62mph in 8.1 seconds.

Aside from needing that speed of response, this is a car that loves cruising around town and eating up those hundreds of miles very comfortably when driving through France. And when you get stuck in the holiday traffic on the bottlenecks to the sun, the stop/start saves you plenty of fuel. And speaking of fuel, for a car of this size and capability, consumption is very healthy and gives you more money to spend on wine to bring back.

On the motorway run I got close to 60mpg on the journey there and again on the way back with a boot full of Provencal rose.

Add low CO2 emissions to the economy and it is an attractive option for company car drivers. And when winding through the hills of Provence the car, with its accurate steering, is very sporty with low-roll cornering and keen front-end bite giving a very enjoyable ride.

Combination

There's no denying that it is a striking car with a combination of short overhangs, a 'pushy' front, sharp creases and a gently sloping roofline. It looks great from nearly every angle.

Two trim levels are available in the UK. Top-spec AMG Sport models have five-spoke AMG alloys, a silver pin grille and slightly deeper bodywork and the entry-level Sport, as driven by me, is attractive enough.

Inside it's as stylish as the outside with sports seats giving a low seating position that adjusts every which way to get the perfect position for every driver, plus quality materials and finish. There are several driving assistance systems (some standard and some options) which reduce the driver's workload.

Standard-fit features for the coupé include Attention Assist – drowsiness detection (and that worked with me after a long stint behind the wheel with me thinking I'll just go on to the next services when I really did need to take a break) and radar-based Collision Prevention Assist with adaptive Brake Assist.

If the warnings don't work this latter feature combines with Distronic Plus to become Collision Prevention Assist Plus, incorporating an additional function.

When a danger of collision persists and the driver fails to respond, the system brakes at speeds of up to 124mph, reducing the severity of collisions with slow or stationary vehicles.

The system also brakes in response to stationary vehicles at a speed of up to 19mph and is able to prevent rear-end collisions at speeds of up to 12mph. And safety is more and more becoming the name of the game when choosing which car to go for.

Established assistance systems, such as Adaptive Highbeam Assist and the Lane Tracking package with Blind Spot and Lane Keeping Assist, are also available for the CLA.

My conclusion? It's an excellent motorway cruiser, likes the town, loves the country and has a nice balance between performance and economy. Prices start at £24,355 on the road.

When winding through the hills its accurate steering is sporty

Astriking car and looks great from every angle

The CLA is as stylish on the inside as out

Boot-iful – there's certainly plenty of room in the back of the new Nissan Note

The entry-level 1.2-litre petrol engine gets 60 miles from a gallon of unleaded

Take Note of this new star on the city streets

By David Banner

THE British-built Note has proven to be one of Nissan's biggest hits and the second generation model looks to build on that success with a different twist.

The Nissan Note moves towards the conventional supermini in second generation guise but it's still set to be a family favourite.

Better quality, sharper styling, interesting safety gear and a fascinating three-cylinder engine with a decoupling supercharger are the order of the day here.

Certain cars were always going to be hits from the moment the designer's pen left the sketchpad. The success of others wasn't so easy to predict. Nissan's Note falls into the latter category. Yes, it's clearly a well-built family car that appealed across a broad customer base, but that could be said of a number of its rivals. Where the British-built Note scored was in offering Nissan's renowned build quality at very accessible prices, building on the success of the Micra, a formula subsequently reprised by the massive-selling Qashqai and Juke crossovers.

Nissan is a company renowned for its engineering innovation but sometimes that hi-tech approach fails to filter down to its more everyday models. Not this time. Take the petrol engines in this Note. The entry-level is a three-cylinder 1.2-litre 80PS unit. So far so unexciting. But you can also buy a version of this engine, the 1.2-litre DIG-S, with a supercharger that boosts power to 98PS. Ah, but aren't superchargers notoriously fuel-hungry things, running all the time whether you need them or not? Most are but not this one which uses a clutch pack to disengage the supercharger when running at low speeds.

This engine also uses the Miller Cycle, a system which keeps the inlet valves open longer to help efficiency, as is also offered with CVT automatic transmission. Should you prefer, you can also get a 90PS 1.5-litre diesel engine.

The Note has been extensively developed in Europe to offer a driving experience that's right for our road conditions. With a distinct set-up from that of the Japanese and US market, the European version has unique steering, suspension and chassis settings. The 1.2-litre DIG-S model has further dynamic tweaks for an even more engaging experience.

Expensive

The old Note was a neatly styled if somewhat anonymous-looking thing. The latest car has a good deal more styling going on and a more expensive look and feel, both in and out. The chrome grille that seems to take a bite out of each headlight, the nicely chamfered wheel arches and the detail lines in the flanks that help avoid a slab-sided look.

Nissan calls this the 'Squash Line' because it was apparently inspired by the angles a squash ball takes around a court.

There's not too much squashing going on inside. There's a decent amount of room and the materials quality has improved considerably, although some of the minor switchgear still looks old and cheap.

The dash is all hard-finish plastic, although the piano-black centre console lifts things. It's a bit odd that the door pulls are the only items finished in chrome in the whole front cabin too. The rear isn't bad for legroom thanks to a sliding rear bench, although taller occupants may find headroom a push.

Prices sit in the £12,000 to £18,000 bracket and the Note is offered in four familiar trim grades – VISIA, Acenta, Acenta Premium and Tekna. All models feature stop-start ignition systems, six airbags and cruise control with a speed limiter.

Mid-spec Acenta models add air-conditioning, Bluetooth connection and rear electric windows, while top grade Tekna models feature the Safety Shield pack, Nissan Connect, Around View Monitor, part leather trim and keyless entry with i-key.

The entry-level 1.2-litre petrol engine gets 60 miles from a gallon of unleaded and even if the driver opts for the more powerful 98PS DIG-S supercharged version, you'll actually be looking at improved economy; a return of 66mpg should make this one a popular choice.

Emissions? Again the DIG-S engine comes up trumps. This gets 99g/km with the manual gearbox, but you'll have to watch the CVT auto option which bumps things up to 119g/km and could have expensive tax implications for business users. The base 1.2 manages a reasonable 109g/km with its manual 'box.

Of course there will be many who will look at nothing but a diesel engine in this class and the 1.5-litre DCI powerplant won't disappoint.

This returns an incredible 78mpg on the combined cycle and emissions are tied right down at just 95g/km. Nissan's start-stop ignition system is fitted to all models.

Ibiza rocks! Supermini fine-tuned to perfection

The Seat Ibiza delivers improved cost-efficiency, more hi-tech gadgets and style

For the fourth generation main tweaks have been around the headlights and grille

THE revised version of SEAT's fourth generation Ibiza supermini offers small car buyers a smarter set of more eco-conscious hi-tech talents.

It'll need them if it's to distance itself from its Volkswagen and Skoda design stablemates and continue as a credible alternative in this tightly fought segment.

'Enjoyneering' – it's a rather apt description of what Spanish maker SEAT sets out to create when it brings us a new car. Something beautifully engineered: but with a bit of extra Latin sparkle. Something like this, the Iberian brand's much improved fourth generation Ibiza supermini.

The "Sociedad Espanola de Automoviles de Turismo" or SEAT as we better know it is well used to injecting a little life into its cars.

Only when Volkswagen took control of the brand in 1986 though, did its appeal start to spread to the rest of Europe, with the Ibiza supermini the sales spearhead and this MK4 model, launched in 2008, generally acknowledged as the company's most competitive proposition yet.

A few years on though and with toughening small car competition, it was clear that a bit of a re-think might be needed to keep this car current.

Perhaps a sharper look, a bit of extra running cost efficiency and an added touch of hi-tech would do the trick? All were duly delivered by this improved model, launched in the Spring of 2012. Let's check it out.

Go for a model with more than 100bhp and it'll also come with a clever XDS electronic differential lock which will help you get the power down more quickly out of tight corners, dialing out understeer and firing you from bend to bend.

All TSI petrol models get this treatment, these including my favourite variant, the 105PS 1.2-litre unit which makes 60 in 9.8 seconds on the way to nearly 120mph, yet still returns a highly impressive set of running cost figures.

You can order it with a super-smooth DSG automatic gearbox '' but you don't have to.

Annoyingly, that's not the case if you go for the pokier 150 or 180PS supercharged and turbocharged 1.4TSI engine found in the sporty but strangely auto-only FR and Cupra hot hatch models.

By Paul Naylor

Other pokey XDS-equipped Ibizas include the 105PS 1.6-litre diesel and my pick as the sportiest car in the range, the desirable 143PS 2.0 TDI FR model which makes 60 in just 8.2s on the way to 130mph.

Performance

That's the fast stuff dealt with, but here I've chosen a more realistic Ibiza variant to drive, the 12v 70PS 1.2-litre petrol model.

Though I've tried for a sportier feel by specifying the three-door SC bodystyle, the performance figures are sober-suited, sixty from rest occupying around 14 seconds on the way to a maximum of only just over 100mph.

Virtually the same performance return you'd get from the frugal 75PS 1.2-litre TDI diesel. Both engines are a better bet than the aging 85PS 16v 1.4-litre petrol unit.

Whichever Ibiza bodystyle you choose '' five-door hatch, ST estate or the sportier three-door SC, it won't at first glance appear to have changed very much over the original versions of this MK4 model The key tweaks have been made around the headlights and grille, this Ibiza wearing the 'eagle eye' lamps that are now part of the SEAT corporate look.

In the back, the three-door Ibiza SC's roofline will make headroom an issue for taller folk, but five-door and ST estate models should seat two adults and/or three children quite comfortably. There's a 284-litre boot here, a total that rises to 292-litres in the five-door and 450-litres in the ST estate.

Expect to pay somewhere in the £10,000 to £17,000 bracket for this Ibiza, pricing that's pretty much par for the course in the supermini segment.

All models get what today's supermini buyers would see as the basics '' front electric windows, tinted glass, a four-speaker MP3-compatible CD stereo with AUX-in point and steering wheel controls, remote central locking, a 12v power socket and a height-adjustable driver's seat. Safety-wise, there are the usual twin front and side airbags, plus anti-lock brakes that flash the brake lights to warn following motorists if you're making an emergency stop.

Running cost-wise, the prime pick is undoubtedly the 1.2-litre diesel TDI engine with its clean Diesel Particulate Filter, offered both in standard form and, for a premium of around £5,000, in green-conscious Ecomotive guise.

Go the Ecomotive route and, thanks to a Brake Energy Recovery feature and a Start/Stop system that cuts the engine when you don't need it, stuck in traffic or waiting at the lights, you're talking emissions of just 92g/km which tax-wise will mean your car won't be much more expensive to run than a push bike.

At the same time, this variant barely sips fuel to achieve 80.7mpg on the combined cycle, considerably more frugal than much pricier competing eco-conscious supermini models like Ford's Fiesta ECOnetic and Vauxhall's Corsa ecoFLEX 95PS Start/Stop.

Four grades all packed with high levels of kit

The new Nissan Qashqai, on sale in January next year, has a choice of two petrol and two diesel engines

FOLLOWING its recent glitzy London unveiling, Nissan has now released pricing and specification details for its hotly anticipated latest generation Qashqai.

When the mid-size SUV goes on sale in January prices will start from £17,595 and rise to £27,845, and buyers will have a choice of four trim levels.

Nissan's engineers have also done much to improve the car's green credentials, with the result being an engine line-up spanning the 99g/km to 132g/km CO2 range.

Entry level Visia cars benefit from a generous amount of kit, including auto air-conditioning, hill start assist, cruise control and a large colour infotainment screen.

Acenta-badged models gain the likes of dual-zone air-con, leather for the steering wheel and gear lever, larger alloy wheels and a tyre pressure monitoring system.

Enhance

Both the Visia and Acenta models come with the option of a Smart Vision Pack (£450) that adds Nissan's advanced Safety Shield system among other driver aids.

Designed to enhance the safety of occupants, the pack incorporates Front Collision Avoidance and Traffic Sign Recognition. Moving up to the Acenta Premium grade adds digital radio, a rear view parking camera and sensors, a panoramic sunroof, keyless ignition and lane departure warning.

The flagship Tekna models add all-round parking sensors, part leather seats, LED headlights, a seven-inch infotainment screen and 19-inch alloys.

A pair of petrol and diesel engines will be available from launch, all boasting fuel-saving stop-start technology.

Diesel fans can choose between a 109bhp 1.5 unit and a 128bhp 1.6 motor. Petrol options initially run to a 1.2 113bhp motor and more powerful 148bhp 1.6 unit.

Award for the new Forester from Subaru

This version of the best selling Subaru, is fresh, good-looking and a great drive on the road and off-road

SUBARU UK's best-selling model, the Subaru Forester, has been named 'Mid Range SUV of the Year' by 4x4 Magazine.

Subjecting the new Forester to a wide range of tests both on- and off-road, 4x4 Magazine awarded the Forester with class honours in one of the hardest-fought categories in its annual '4x4 of the Year' issue.

Commenting on the Forester's victory, Nigel Fryatt, editor of 4x4 Magazine, said: "Subaru's latest Forester impressed us both on and off road. This version is fresh, good-looking and a great drive. It has 'good for its class' approach and departure angles and with the automatically controlled X-Mode system, the Forester maintains its competent off-road ability and bad weather credentials. That it is also great to drive on the road is the bonus that grabbed the class victory."

The Forester builds on the model's established reputation as a tough, likeable and highly capable SUV. At the same time, it offers improved performance, safety and efficiency and a more spacious and better appointed cabin.

Sales of the Forester are up 75% year on year against 2012. The petrol turbo XT has been in particularly high demand among the Subaru faithful - bucking the trend for strong diesel SUV sales – with its 240ps 2.0-litre turbocharged direct-injection petrol engine and clever X-Mode hill descent system.

The new model is also available with Subaru's latest 2.0-litre petrol and diesel Boxer engines, with all versions featuring Subaru's trademark symmetrical All-wheel drive as standard.

Paul Tunnicliffe, managing director of Subaru UK, said: "We are delighted with this recognition. The Forester has always been popular with owners who need a car that is highly accomplished off-road but also entertaining on it, and the decision by 4x4 Magazine's expert judges is testament to the car's varied abilities."

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree. Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Staffordshire County Council

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED)
ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991
BLAKENEY WAY AND WASHBROOK LANE, CANNOCK
DIVERSION OF VEHICULAR TRAFFIC

NOTICE is hereby given that the Staffordshire County Council, on 26 November 2013, made an Order the effect of which is to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding in that length of Blakeney Way and Washbrook Lane, Cannock between its junction with Norton Hall Lane and Cley Road unless the vehicle is being used in connection with the works. Vehicular access will be maintained for businesses situated on Blakeney Way. Pedestrian access will be maintained.

The preferred alternative route for traffic will be available via Blakeney Way, Orbital Way, A460 Eastern Way, A5 Watling Street and vice versa.

THE ORDER WILL COME INTO OPERATION ON 02 DECEMBER 2013, AND THE SAID WORKS WILL COMMENCE ON OR AS NEAR AS PRACTICABLE TO THAT DATE. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THE WORKS WILL BE COMPLETED BY 06 DECEMBER 2013.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the carriageway resurfacing works, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the road, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

IN PARLIAMENT
SESSION 2013-14

HIGH SPEED RAIL (LONDON – WEST MIDLANDS) BILL

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport has introduced in the present Session of Parliament a Bill under the above name or short title for purposes of which the following is a concise summary:–

1. The provision of a railway ("the railway") between Euston in London and a junction with the West Coast Main Line at Handsacre in Staffordshire, with a spur from Old Oak Common in the London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham to a junction with the Channel Tunnel Rail Link at York Way in the London Borough of Islington and a spur from Water Orton in Warwickshire to Curzon Street in Birmingham; and for connected purposes.
2. Provision to authorise the nominated undertaker to construct and maintain works and a general description of the nature of such of those works as are in, or partly in, the counties of Warwickshire and Staffordshire, the Metropolitan Borough of Solihull and the City of Birmingham is set out in Schedule 1 to this notice.
3. Powers for the nominated undertaker to carry out subsidiary works; to carry out landscaping and other works to mitigate adverse effects of the authorised works or for the benefit or protection of land; to undertake diversions of specified overhead electric lines crossing the intended route; to survey lands, to carry out archaeological investigation and protect flora or fauna, including powers to make trial holes and leave apparatus on such land and powers of entry; the supporting or strengthening of buildings within 100 metres where the work relates to the making of a shaft or in certain other specified cases or 50 metres of any other work, including power to survey buildings and to enter on adjoining property; power to require tree works where trees overhang land used for the railway or tree roots encroach on such land; power to discharge water into watercourses or public sewers or drains; temporary interference with specified waterways in connection with the authorised works, including powers to moor barges or other vessels and temporarily to close such waterways to navigation subject to restrictions; the provision of additional capacity for electronic communications apparatus installed under the intended Act; and the provision of level crossings; power to lay out or improve means of access at locations shown on the deposited plans and, subject to restrictions, at other locations within the limits of deviation or the limits of land to be acquired or used shown on those plans ("the intended Act limits").
4. Provision to authorise interference with, or obstruction of, highways, including power for the nominated undertaker to stop up specified highways or parts of highways; powers for Ministers to authorise the stopping up of footpaths or bridleways within the intended Act limits on being satisfied as to the provision of alternative footpaths or bridleways; powers for the temporary stopping up, alteration or diversion of highways and other interference with highways for the purposes of constructing the authorised works, including powers to break up all or part of the surface of highways for those purposes (which include breaking up highways in order to place and maintain apparatus) and to use a stopped up highway as a working site; powers to place and maintain apparatus in highways and application of provisions of Part 3 of the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 relating to major transport works; provision relating to highways which are constructed or altered including the maintenance period for such highways, liability for maintenance and application of sections 116 and 117 of the Transport Act 1968.
5. In connection with the construction of the works specified in Schedule 1 to this notice and paragraph 3 above which are in, or partly in, the Counties of Warwickshire and Staffordshire, the Metropolitan Borough of Solihull and the City of Birmingham, provision for the stopping up or diversion of the public footpaths and bridleways and cycleways specified in Schedule 2 to this notice.
6. In connection with the construction of any underground railway specified in Schedule 1 to this notice, provision for the alteration or disturbance of the surface of the roads or streets specified in Schedule 3 to this notice.
7. Powers for the compulsory acquisition of lands by the Secretary of State within the intended Act limits in the areas referred to in paragraph 2 above and Schedule 1 to this notice, including powers for the acquisition of lands within the limits of land to be acquired or used shown on the deposited plans for specified and other purposes; the application, subject to modifications, of Part I of the Compulsory Purchase Act 1965, the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1981 and other compulsory purchase legislation; provision as to the compulsory acquisition of rights in land, including the creation of new rights and the imposition of restrictive covenants and power for the Secretary of State by order to enable rights or restrictive covenants to be acquired or imposed under the Act by specified persons; the acquisition of part only of certain properties; powers to acquire only the airspace or subsoil of lands and, in specified cases, the restriction of powers of acquisition to only subsoil (being land lying more than 9 metres below the surface of the ground) or subsoil and rights of passage; powers to appropriate or acquire highway subsoil; provision for the extension of the period prescribed for the compulsory acquisition of land, including provision to enable an owner or lessee with over 21 years to require his interest to be acquired; provision as to the extinction of private and general rights (including public rights of access) over land within the intended Act limits and special provision as to the extinction of rights of statutory undertakers; provision to exclude the acquisition of rights of way by prescription or user over certain land; powers for the nominated undertaker to take temporary possession of and use land within the intended Act limits, to use specified roads temporarily and to use airspace over specified land for the oversailing of cranes; provision as to the enforcement of restrictions on land use.
8. The lands which may be acquired or used as are in, or partly in, the Counties of Warwickshire and Staffordshire, the Metropolitan Borough of Solihull and the City of Birmingham include the common land, park and open space set out in Schedule 4 to this notice and the canal tow paths and related land set out in Schedule 5 to this notice.
9. Provision as to the grant of deemed planning permission for development authorised by the intended Act which is begun within 10 years from its passing or such longer period as may be specified in an order made by the Secretary of State, and the reservation of specified matters for determination by the planning authority; the making of orders by the Secretary of State specifying local planning authorities qualifying for extended powers in relation to development so authorised; planning conditions requiring approval of specified matters by non-qualifying authorities or approval of those and other specified matters by qualifying authorities; disapplication or modification of provisions of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 in relation to specified buildings and structures which may be altered or demolished and disapplication or modification of provisions of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 and the National Heritage Act 1983 in the case of works or operations carried out in pursuance of the intended Act.
10. Disapplication of enactments relating to burial grounds and provisions relating to the removal of burials and monuments; disapplication of section 37 of the Electricity Act 1989 and the Planning Act 2008 in relation to overhead lines; determination of appeals under sections 60 and 61 of the Control of Pollution Act 1974 and limitation on proceedings in respect of nuisance under section 82 of the Environmental Protection Act 1990.
11. Disapplication or modification of statutory or other controls, including obligations or restrictions relating to consecrated land, enactments relating to commons, town or village greens, open spaces or allotments; tree preservation orders and similar prohibitions in conservation areas; sections 24, 25 and 48A and 109 of the Water Resources Act 1991; paragraph 5 of Schedule 1 and paragraph 7 of Schedule 3 to the Flood and Water Management Act 2010; section 106 of the Water Industry Act 1991 and Part 4 of the Eels (England and Wales) Regulations 2009; Part 1 and sections 61, 62, 73 and 74 of the Building Act 1984; the Party Walls Act 1996; section 15 of the Greater London Council (General Powers) Act 1970; sections 141, 167 and 169 of the Highways Act 1980; section 8 of the Greater London Council (General Powers) Act 1986; sections 56, 56A, 58, 61, 62, 63, 73A, 74A, 78A of, and Schedule 3A to, the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991; Part 3 of the Traffic Management Act 2004; the Greater London (Restriction of Goods Vehicles) Traffic Order 1985 and other orders under section 1 or 6 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 restricting heavy commercial vehicles; sections 3 and 9 of the London Squares Preservation Act 1931; the London Overground Wires etc. Act 1933; Parts 3, 4 and 5 of the London Building Acts (Amendment) Act 1939; sections 11, 15, 16, 21, 46 and 84 and Part 7 of the West Midlands County Council Act 1980; sections 7, 10, 12, 16, 26 and Part 7 of the Staffordshire Act 1983; sections 5 and 10 of the Oxfordshire Act 1985 and sections 5 to 7 of the Greater London Council (General Powers) Act 1986.
12. Modifications of the functions of the Office of Rail Regulation in relation to the railway; disapplication of the licensing regime under section 6 of the Railways Act 1993 in relation to the pre-operational phase of the railway and of provisions of the Railways Act 2005 concerning closure of services arising from the construction or operation of the railway; duty of controllers of railway facilities to co-operate in matters affecting the railway and any such facility not comprised in it, and the determination by arbitration of agreements between such operators and the nominated undertaker; powers for the Secretary of State to transfer statutory functions relating to works on acquired railway land.
13. The making of orders appointing nominated undertakers for the purposes of specified provisions of the intended Act, power for the Secretary of State to make schemes for the transfer of property, rights and liabilities from High Speed Two (HS2) Limited, or a wholly owned subsidiary of it, to any person; the extension of provisions relating to permitted development to certain works carried out by statutory undertakers; provisions protecting the interests of specified bodies and persons potentially affected by the intended Act; powers for the Secretary of State to compulsorily acquire land for regeneration or development the opportunity for which arises from the construction or operation of the railway or for the relocation of displaced undertakings; provision with respect to works carried out by the nominated undertaker for the reinstatement of discontinued or substantially impaired businesses or facilities; provision for the Scottish Ministers to make orders relating to the carrying out of works in Scotland in connection with the railway or any high speed railway system of which it is to form part; power for transport and works orders relating to the authorised works or an extension of the railway to apply certain provisions of the intended Act; powers to enter land to carry out surveys or to comply with EU environmental protection legislation in connection with further proposed high speed rail works.
14. Miscellaneous and general provisions, including the incorporation of provisions of the Railway Clauses Consolidation Act 1845, provisions relating to the Railways Regulation Acts, increase of penalties under specified provisions of those Acts and the extension to the railway of sections 55 and 56 of the British Transport Commission Act 1949 concerning trespass on railways and throwing of missiles; the disapplication of an undertaking relating to the North Pole Depot; provision relating to the Crown and royal park land, arbitration and the service of notices. AND

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that as from 29 November Plans and Sections, with a Book of Reference to those Plans, relating to the purposes of the Bill will be deposited for public inspection at the offices and libraries referred to in Parts I and II of Schedule 6 to this Notice.

As from 29 November an Environmental Statement and Non-Technical Summary of that Statement, and copies of the Bill and the Explanatory Notes will also be available for public inspection at each of the offices and libraries mentioned in Parts I and II of Schedule 6 to this notice and for inspection at the following office: High Speed Two (HS2) Ltd, 2nd Floor, Eland House, Bressenden Place, London SW1E 5DU, Tel: 020 7944 4908, Email: hs2enquiries@hs2.org.uk, www.hs2.org.uk.

As from 29 November copies of the Environmental Statement and Non-Technical Summary of that Statement, and copies of the Bill and the Explanatory Notes, will also be available for sale from High Speed Two (HS2) Limited, 2nd Floor, Eland House, Bressenden Place, London SW1E 5DU, Tel: 020 7944 4908, Email: hs2enquiries@hs2.org.uk, www.hs2.org.uk.

By 29 November the Bill and Explanatory Notes will be available on the UK Parliament's website at www.parliament.uk. By 27 November the Plans and Sections, Environmental Statement and Non-Technical Summary will be available on the Department for Transport's website at www.gov.uk/transport and via HS2 Ltd's website at www.hs2.org.uk. By 27 November specialist technical reports relating to the Environmental Statement will also be available at www.gov.uk/transport and via www.hs2.org.uk.

Any person who wishes to make comments on the Environmental Statement should send them to the Secretary of State for Transport, FREEPOST RTEC-AJUT-GGHH, HS2 Phase One Bill Environmental Statement, PO Box 70178, London, WC1A 9HS, Email: HS2PhaseOneBillES@dialoguebydesign.com on or before 24 January 2014.

Anyone wishing to send comments should note that responses will be published on a publicly-accessible website in due course, but the names, addresses and signatures of individuals will not be published. As it is not possible for the substance of responses to be checked to ascertain whether they contain other personal data, you should not include information in your response that could identify you unless you are content for it to be made public.

If you do not want any of your response to be published you should clearly mark it as "Confidential" in the "subject" of the email or at the top of your letter. However please note the following two paragraphs.

If you want the information you provide to be treated as confidential, you should be aware that all information provided in response to this consultation, including personal information, may be subject to disclosure in accordance with access to information regimes (these are primarily the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), the Data Protection Act 1998 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004). Under the FOIA, there is a statutory Code of Practice with which public authorities must comply and which deals, amongst other things, with confidentiality obligations. In view of this it would be helpful if you could explain in your response why you regard the information you have provided as confidential. If a request for disclosure of the information you provide is received full account will be taken of your explanation, but no assurance can be given that confidentiality can be maintained in all circumstances. An automatic confidentiality disclaimer generated by your IT system will not, of itself, be regarded as binding on the Department for Transport or HS2 Ltd.

All responses received, whether marked Confidential or not, will be passed on in full to the Houses of Parliament and their appointed Assessor, who will analyse the responses and make a report to Parliament. That report will not contain your personal data.

The Bill will be introduced as a public Bill. In the House of Commons, an Order will be made when the Bill is read a Second time in that House and committed providing for objection to the Bill to be made by depositing a Petition against it in the Private Bill Office in accordance with the provisions of such Order (which will specify the latest date for depositing such a petition). In the House of Lords, objection to the Bill may be made by depositing a Petition against it in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and the latest date for depositing such a Petition against the Bill may be the subject of an Order made by that House or, if no Order is made, will be the tenth day after that on which the Bill receives its First reading in that House. In the latter case, if this date is a Sunday, Christmas Day or a Bank Holiday, or a day on which the House does not sit, the final date for depositing may be postponed.

Information about the deposit of such a Petition may be obtained from the Private Bill Office, House of Commons, or the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments House of Lords, or the undermentioned Parliamentary Agents.

Students clinch it in last few minutes

BOTH Cannock and Loughborough students came into this game in need of a win as both are near the bottom of the table.

It took 11 minutes for the first goal. A patient build-up from Cannock found Martin Ebbage who drove past a couple of Loughborough players down the left-hand side and then smashed the ball past a helpless goalkeeper to make it 1-0.

Cannock began the second half with their best spell of the game during which they doubled their lead. After good work down the left, a slow driven cross found Cannock's Robert Smith who tapped home.

Loughborough's hard work soon paid off after a well worked counter attack found Dominic Bowden who made it 2-1. Loughborough again punished Cannock's lack of concentration as they found an equaliser scored by Chris Griffiths.

It was Cannock who found the eventual game winner with just a few minutes to spare. A smash towards goal by David Beckett was intercepted by Cannock's Nick Bandurak to score.

Belt tie up top spot with win

Premier League

Pitmen dig deep but just not enough

Brackley Town 1
Hednesford Town 0

HEDNESFORD Town suffered just their second league defeat of the season after losing 1-0 in a tight affair at Brackley Town, writes Scott Smith.

The Pitmen were boosted when captain Darren Campion and influential midfielder Jamey Osborne passed late fitness tests to join starting line-up.

It would be the home side that would start marginally the better and they nearly took an early lead when in the eighth minute Brett Solkhon was denied by a fantastic reaction save from Dan Crane. Back came the visitors though and following good link-up play between the Town front two, Neil Harvey managed to fashion a half chance for Michael Lennon, who saw his low driven effort easily saved by Billy Turley.

The shot stopper was soon in action again as in the 37th minute he moved sharply across his goal to punch Elliott Durrell's freekick to safety, with both Francino Francis and Harvey lurking in the six-yard box.

Two minutes before the break Hednesford were indebted to

Football

Crane for keeping the scores level as he made a brilliant double save to deny Eddie Odhiambo.

The second period really saw Hednesford come out with positive intent from the start as they looked to edge ahead. First Durrell pulled a snap shot all the way across the goal before his whipped ball in saw Tom Thorley fail to connect at the back post.

The Pitmen were now on top however, they failed to threaten Turley in the Brackley goal again. Following the introduction of the lively Izak Reid, the home side came back. Hednesford were now really struggling to get out of their own half and in a rare foray forward Harvey blazed high and wide as the visitors tried to take the pressure off their defence.

This would only delay the inevitable though, as following another concerted period of pressure Brackley found the breakthrough in the 86th minute. The lively Reid pushed the ball past Campion and his cross in was nodded home by Diggin. It was a goal that had been coming, however Hednesford still managed to come back at their hosts, but despite forcing a number of setpieces though they failed to really threaten the home side's goal.

In the end the one goal would be enough to sentence The Pitmen to their first league defeat since the 7th September. However, it wouldn't displace them from the top of the table, with the top six now being separated by just one point.

Hednesford can now look forward to a break from league action as cup competitions take priority over the course of the next two weeks.

Super Scholars back to the winning ways

Chasetown 2 Carlton Town 1

CHASETOWN bounced back from their Goole loss with a fine win over high-flying Carlton Town, though the scoreline was closer than it should have been, writes Paul Mullins.

The away side started positively enough and within 90 seconds, Sammy Macvicar forced Ryan Price into an early save. But Chasetown took the lead in the 12th minute.

Danny Bragoli rolled the ball into Paul Sullivan who had plenty to do but Sullivan turned on a sixpence and fired an unstoppable shot into the roof of Curtis McDonald's net.

Craig Harris' men had a golden chance to make it 2-0. Craig Bannister got on the end of a through ball from midfield and as McDonald advanced, Bannister tried to get his shot away only to be denied by a top-class save.

Powerful

McDonald surpassed it two minutes later, beating away a powerful effort from Jack Farmer on the edge of the area.

Three minutes after the restart the Scholars striker looked destined to net, but somehow the Carlton keeper kept it out.

Just over a minute later, Bannister would have been forgiven for thinking it wasn't going to be his day. Chasing the ball as McDonald advanced, Bannister finally got it beyond the Town keeper as McDonald clattered into his own defender. It looked a certainty that the Pics' No.9, would get there first to tap into an empty net but, out of nowhere, Lee Torr appeared to clear the danger.

Fifteen minutes from the end, Chasetown doubled their lead and Bannister finally got his goal. Carlton's defence was all at sea as Simon Brown found Bannister, who steered the ball beyond McDonald and over the head of strike partner Sullivan on the line.

Carlton players protested that Sullivan was in an offside position, but, after consultation with his assistant, the referee concluded that the goal was valid.

The visitors responded with a late goal from substitute Joe Brothwell

Chasetown: Price, Farmer, Beckett, Slater, Tesfa Robinson, Halsall, Brown, Bragoli, Bannister (Smith, 89), Sullivan, D Bennett (Westwood, 90+3). Subs not used: Williams, Wellecomme, Stephens.

Carlton Town: McDonald, Anderson, Brindley (B Bennett, 77), Troke, Torr, Ball, Thornton, Elliot, Macvicar, Vilums (Brothwell,), Flynn (Bailey, 60). Sub not used: Keane.

Marathon challenge on track to boost charity

Cheers from Cannock and Stafford AC after their world record 200m relay effort at Rowley Park, Stafford

CANNOCK AND STAFFORD AC have that world record feeling – as well as helping a charity.

They were among more than 600 teams from 60-plus countries taking part in the World Marathon Challenge for Save the Children. The event originally focused on young school runners, but an increasing number of open age teams now take part.

The teams, consisting of between 26 and 36 athletes, run a continuous 200m relay to try to complete a marathon distance – 26 miles, 385 yards – in the quickest possible time.

Cannock & Stafford fielded 34 competitors ranging in age from 12-year-olds Iris Davies, Sarah Preston and Amy Pye to 50-year-old veteran hurdler Gary Myles. The 34 runners were mainly from sprint groups coached by Shaun Ainge, Myles and Jamie Mills with some middle-distance runners under the wing of Bob Hughes. They completed the 105 and a half laps at Rowley Park in Stafford in one hour 42 minutes and 22 seconds, just three seconds ahead of Estonian club Tartu Kalev.

Organiser Sandi Thompson said: "We are all proud of the team, both for their effort on the track and for raising over £1,200 for Save the Children."

Cancelled due to frost.

Cannock Ladies 5ths 1
Lichfield Ladies 6ths 1

Cannock Ladies 5ths took on Lichfield 6ths on Saturday, with the score finishing one each.

Cannock were unlucky not to take the lead with the Lichfield goalkeeper's fine form keeping them in the game.

Cannock remain fifth in the league with two more games before the Christmas break.

Punching Roberts choice of sponsor

SEVENTEEN-year-old Great Wyrley boxer Reece Roberts won the boxer of the night award after producing the performance of his career to outpoint Old Hill ABC boxer Aaron Robinson over a cracking three two-minute rounds.

Robinson started fast behind his left jab in the first round, but found Roberts had an answer to everything he threw. Reece countered every punch Robinson tried to land and threw in a mixture of punches to head and body to take the first.

The second saw Roberts start to cut the ring down quicker and his right hand landed with regularity over Robinson's jab, slowing down the Old Hill boxer who was feeling the pace at the end of an excellent second round.

It was all Roberts in the last and Robinson started to tire badly as Reece started to go through the gears, mixing his punches beautifully to head and body to applause from the large crowd at the Platinum Plaza in Old Hill. It was a unanimous decision and he took the Sponsors trophy for boxer of the night.

Daniel Hodson, aged 12, (Great Wyrley ABC) gained his first win at the second attempt when he took the tightest of decisions over hometown fighter Sarhil Khan (Warley). Hodson was worth his majority points win.

Cannock Bowling Club v Staffs Police Competition was won by Cannock Bowling Club.

Derby victory ends run of defeats for Hayes

Heath Hayes 2 Tipton Town 1

Football

HAYES finally ended their run of six straight defeats in the Midland Alliance with a deserved win over their Black Country neighbours.

Goals from Alex Imerfreys and Tom Green put the home side two goals up before half-time. But Tipton offered sterner opposition in the second period and reduced the arrears five minutes from time when Ben Hadley put away a rebound.

That goal led to a frenetic last few minutes as the visitors threw everything at the home goal in a bid to find an equaliser.

But Hayes held firm and were able to celebrate a vital three points. Town were much the better team in the early part of Tuesday night's game and squandered several good chances. But it was the home side who drew first blood when Imerfeys, prefered in the starting line-up to the out-of-sorts Dave Waple, ran through to plant the ball wide of the despairing dive of Town keeper Jamie Pemberton.

This was to be the last significant part Imerfreys played in the game as he had to leave the field following a challenge from Rob Perks.

Waple came on and with his first real contribution laid on a fine ball for Green to fire home a powerful volley for the second goal.

Town kept plugging away and Liam Degville gave the ball away with a sloppy pass allowing Danny Ashton a clear run on goal but keeper Adam Jenkins came to the home sides rescue with a brilliant save to allow his side to go into the break with a two goal lead.

Almost from the restart Green had a good chance to increase the lead but dragged his shot wide.

The visitors were enjoying plenty of possession but the home side were fighting with a dogged determination and always looked dangerous on the break. Waple and Chris Geldart both had chances to make the game safe.

The home defence finally cracked on 85 minutes when a header from Ashton struck the bar and the rebound was forced home by Hadley.

The last few minutes seemed like an eternity as Town threw everything at the home side but, with lots of encouragement from their loyal band of supporters.

They held out to record a well-deseved victory and take them off the unlucky 13-point mark.

SOFT GOALS SINK PITMEN CUP BID

Newcastle Town 2 Hednesford Town 0

THERE will be no glorious evening at Vale Park in April for Hednesford Town this season as the holders of the Staffordshire Senior Cup bowed out at the quarter-final stage.

The exit was thanks to two soft first-half goals and a Newcastle Town team who defended as if their lives depended on it during a second-half siege.

Football

The Pitmen, having restored Nathan Woolfe, Aaron Rey and Dave MacPherson to the starting line up, started positively enough. They saw Wayne Riley finish confidently past Joe Mellor on five minutes only for the linesman to raise his flag for offside.

And Newcastle opened the scoring just eight minutes later. Jordan Cole showed superb desire in crashing through two tackles and then calmly rounding keeper Dan Crane to finish into an open net.

Brilliant

It was 2-0 to the hosts on 24 minutes when a cross was allowed to come in from the left and the unmarked Thomas Urwin was left to finish with a brilliant diving header.

Riley continued to look lively for the away side and might well have halved the deficit with a stunning volley from distance which cracked the inside of the post and bounced clear.

The second half saw top-scorer Elliott Durrell introduced alongside Michael Lennon and the change almost had an immediate effect as Paul McCone headed a perfectly-judged Durrell cross into the net on 48 minutes only for the referee to disallow it for a push. Newcastle remained determined. The Pitmen camped in the hosts' half, but were unable to break down a solid defence.

The home side could have scored themselves on the counter when Cole broke clear but saw his chip brilliantly blocked by Crane.

Back came Hednesford in their bid to get a foothold in the game. Kris Taylor hit the bar with a looping cross; Durrell struck a post from a curling corner and, after a great one-two with MacPherson, Riley was denied by Mellor's fine intervention.

Newcastle held on and the Pitmen are at least free to concentrate on the no small matter of a promotion tilt at the Conference and FA Trophy glory.

Newcastle Town: Mellor, Askey, Bridge, Ashman, Carter, Miller, France, Skelton, Cole, Sanders, Urwin. Subs not used: Lowe, Hardiman, Ryder, Hednesford Town: Crane, Melbourne, Taylor, Bailey, McCone, MacPherson, Thompson-Brown (Durrell 45), Thorley, Rey (Lennon 45), Riley, Woolfe (Osborne 66). Subs not used: Harvey, Campion.

Hednesford ace Neil Harvey is foiled by Brackley goalkeeper Billy Turley as the Pitmen suffered only their second league defeat of the season on Saturday. They went down 1-0 in Northamptonshire. Match report – Page 91

Missed chances yet again

Alvechurch 3
Heath Hayes 1

IT was the same old story on Saturday as Hayes once more were the better side but failed to take their chances.

They also had crucial refereeing decisions go against them in this all-action Midland Alliance encounter.

They should have taken a fifth-minute lead when Joe Geldarts' corner found Ben Maddox but he headed wide.

Tom Green then had a powerful shot deflected off the line by Guy Clark but ball rolled wide.

Church took the lead on 13 minutes through Joe Wright with the Hayes defence waiting for the flag.

The visitors were denied an equaliser when Mitch Teece fired home only to have the strike ruled out for an alleged hand ball.

Church increased their lead on the stroke of half-time, Jamie Spencer executed a superb finish following a neat build up and was then denied another by a superb tip over by Adam Jenkins.

Hayes continued to take the game to the home side in and Chris Geldart headed home Teece's cross to reduce the arrears. Spencer sealed the game.

Wolves back on top of the table

WOLVES returned to the top of League One with a 2-0 home win over Tranmere.

Bakary Sako set up Dave Edwards to seal Tuesday night's victory after Leigh Griffiths had opened the scoring.

Victory could have been even more emphatic as Wolves dominated but missed several chances.
